I am researching the ancestral lines of the descendant of Michael TOMLIN and his wife, Susannah. Michael is a descendant of Peter Tomlin (b.1775/76) and his wife, Elizabeth. He was the son of William Tomlin. Michael and Susannah had eight children: Angeline, Catherine, Martha Ann, William H, Mary Jane, Amzi, and Almyra. I am descended from Martha Ann TOMLIN, who married my paternal fourth great grandfather, Thomas Wilkerson Gray. Their children and relations are mentioned in the will of Catherine Gray HARDING as heirs to a disputed estate. Michael was born in Virginia and emigrated to the Brown County area of Ohio at some point. He may also have resided in the Mason/Fleming county area of Kentucky prior to then but as yet I have no proof.

James

JOSEPH H. MARVIN, grocer, Aberdeen, was born in West Union, Adams Co., Ohio., in the year 1819; is a son of Oliver H. Marvin, a native of Utica, N. Y., who settled in West Union about 1815, and followed farming there until 1822; he then moved to this county, and in 1824 removed to Maysville, Ky, where he operated a bakery till 1832, when he returned to Aberdeen, and engaged in the same business; he afterward moved to Lewis County, Ky., where he died in 1857, at the age of seventy-five years. He had six children, of whom only our subject lives in this county. A sister, Malinda McDowell, lives in Oregon. The deceased are Leonard, William T., infants He was a soldier in the war of 1812, stationed at Sackett's Harbor. Mrs. Marvin died in 1846, at the age of seventy-three years. The boyhood of our subject after his third year was passed in this county, and after becoming of proper age he learned the baker's trade, which, on account of failing health, he abandoned and sought employment on the river, and followed it in different capacities for about seven years, after which he commanded the ferry-boat at the crossing for about a period of nine years. Then he went on a steamboat in 1845, and the following year opened a grocery in Aberdeen, where he has since been engaged with the exception of three years he passed in Adams County, Ohio, on the farm. He served as Constable from 1869 to 1871 continously; Mayor two years, and was Councilman a number of terms. He is a member of the Christian Church at Bethlehem, which he joined in 1843. Mr. Marvin has been successful as a business man, and has accumulated a sufficient competency. He was twice married; first in 1841, to Miss Gray, daughter of Isaac Gray, an old settler; she bore him five children, namely—Josephine and Thomas L. Hamer, living, and Melissa Oliver and William J., deceased. Mrs. Marvin died in 1876, at the age of fifty-two years. His second marriage was celebrated with Margaret (Boyle) Bidle, daughter of Daniel Boyle, of West Union, in 1877. He owns town property in Aberdeen consisting of seven lots, five with buildings.

REV. RUFUS H. McDANIEL, P. O. Decatur, was born in this township in the year 1850, and is a son of Hiram and Caroline (Lawwill) McDaniel, early settlers, whose sketches appear in this book. The boyhood of our subject was passed on the farm, and in the district schools; he received the rudiments of his education, after which he attended a select school at Bentonville, Ohio, and still later the academy at New Richmond, Clermont Co., Ohio, which completed his literary education. He paid some attention to theology, and began laboring in the ministry in the summer of 1869, since when he has labored in the Christian Church. He was a licentiate minister until the fall of 1874, when he was ordained during the Conference at the Bethlehem Christian Church. Since then he has labored regularly until the present year; owing to a serious eye difficulty, he is incapacitated for labor. He was married in 1874 to Miss Maggie, the daughter of F. W. and Susan (Hawk) Dragoo, of Brown County, Ohio, who has borne him three children, namely—Clarence, Minnie M. and Eben. F. W. Dragoo is a son of Belteshazzar Dragoo, the first settler in Brown County. Hiram McDaniel, father of Rufus, was born in Mason County, Ky., in the year 1822, and is a son of Edward and Mary (Waldron) McDaniel, who settled in this county about 1822. Edward was a son of Watson and Nancy McDaniel, natives of Maryland. Hiram was but an infant when his parents came to this county. He was reared on the farm, and was married to Caroline, the daughter of John and Mary (Reed) Lawwill, early settlers in Brown County, and natives of New York. Hiram was married in 1844, and afterward located in this township, where he has resided to the present time. To them have been born nine children, of whom six are living, namely—Mary, Sarah, Rufus H., Eliza J., Charles and Thomas. The deceased are Susan A., John L. and an infant. They are both members of the Christian Church, and are exemplary and consistent Christians. He owns thirty acres of improved land.

N. W. NEEL, farmer and ex-commissioner, P. O. Decatur, born in Huntington Tp., near the place where he now resides, in the year 1827; he is a son of Samuel and Mary Jane (Ousler) Neel, early settlers. The early life of our subject was passed on the farm, and when of proper age, he took up blacksmithing, which he followed in conjunction with farming for about twenty years. He received only a limited education

JAMES H. MARVIN (1819-1891) OF ABERDEEN

His biographic sketch (below) in Part V, p. 172 of Beers' 1883 History of Brown County Ohio, must have been submitted in manuscript and headed "Jas. H. Marvin", which was then misread as "Jos.". His name is given in the census and in all legal documents as James. He died 27 April 1891 in Huntington Township, but no tombstone inscription is listed for him in either book of Brown County Cemetery Inscriptions. Did the Christian Church at Bethlehem have a churchyard where his tombstone might be found?

Perhaps James was working on the river in 1840, when he did not appear in the local census. At the 1850 census, his children Melissa and Oliver may have been in the household of Oliver H. Marvin in Lewis County Kentucky. His daughter Josephine, born ca. 1844, last appeared in James' household at the 1860 census. At his death in April 1891 she was Josephine Greenlee, living in Rushville, Rush County Indiana. Who was her husband? There were several Greenlee families in Aberdeen and in adjacent Sprigg Township, Adams County.

By his first wife Dorcas "Dolly" Gray (granddaughter of early Mason County pioneer Matthew Gray) James also had a son Thomas L. Hamer Marvin. At the 1880 census Thomas was a schoolteacher in Aberdeen, with a wife Sarah and a son Wilmark, age 5. In 1880 James and his second wife Margaret (Boyle) Bidle had an adopted son Charles. Could this have been the child of Charles and Lucinda (Liggett) Scott? Lucinda Scott, the sister of James' sister-in-law Ellen (Liggett) Marvin, had died in 1875 and is buried at Charter Oak.

James' grandson Wilmark Marvin was living in San Antonio Texas by 1910. He had at least two children, Sarah Elizabeth and C. Wilmark Marvin. Elizabeth married Douglas "Wrong-Way" Corrigan in Bexar County Texas July 17 1939, Wilmark having changed his mind and consented to their marriage after Corrigan's famous overseas flight. They lived in Southern California, wher Elizabeth died in 1966. C. Wilmark Marvin and his two sons were killed in an air crash in 1971. His father Wilmark Marvin, following in the family tradition, had a cookie factory in San Anton

James H. Marvin had been listed in the census as a grocer in Aberdeen in 1850, as a teamster in Aberdeen in 1860, as a farmer in Sprigg Township, Adams County in 1870, and as a confectioner in 1880. At his death he owned several lots in Aberdeen, which were sold off by an administrator, as he had died intestate. The administrator did not name Charles among his heirs; only Josephine Greenlee and Thomas L., who was "absent in Nicholas County Kentucky".

QUERIES

WARREN, TILLET

William WARREN was born ca 1775, place and parentage unknown, he married Susanna "Lucey" TILLET, d/o John & Jane TILLETT, CA 1772, in VA. William and Susanna married 18 Oct 1792 in Bourbon Cty KY. They were the parents of ten known children. The earliest time period I have them documented in Ohio was from a marriage of their 1st born born son, Charles, 1815.

William, according to land records, must have died ca 1825, deeding his land to his heirs. (I am writing to see if a will or an estate was recorded with the Clerk of the Probate Court for William WARREN). This land was located near the Big Three Mile Creek on the Ohio River. Suzanna died during the 1850,s. She was listed living with a grandson and his family, Nimrod WARREN. She disappeared by the 1860 census, Huntington Twp Brown Cty.

Nimrod WARREN was the second son born to Charles and Margaret REED. I lost Nimrod after the 1850 - '60 census; finally found him living in Monroe Cty MO 1870 - '80. Then by 1900 he was back in Brown Cty OH as a boarder. What happened to his wife Susan CAMPBELL WARREN (assuming she died during the 1860,s)?? Was William and Suzanna WARREN buried in the same cemetery with Nimrod and Susan WARREN??

Many unanswered questions. If any one is working on this family of WARREN'S please contact me and I will share what I have. A lot of my info has been documented.

received his education in the common schools, and early commenced the occupation of farming, at which he continues. He owns land in Illinois and in Clark Township. He is a Democrat and has been a school director. He is an energetic and enterprising young man, capable of filling almost any office in the county.

D. R. CASE, P. O. Hamersville, a teacher by profession and a farmer by occupation, is a life resident of Brown Co., Ohio. He was born January 18, 1850, and is a son of Henry Case and Mary J. (Lake) Case, natives of Ohio and of English ancestry. Mr. Case was reared on a farm, and his early literary education was received in the district schools of Highland and Brown Counties. He subsequently attended the graded schools at Georgetown, and for two years was a student at the National Normal University, at Lebanon, Ohio. When twenty years of age, he commenced teaching school, and has taught each year since, spending the summer months in the cultivation of the soil—Hamersville and Feesburg, have been the principal points in his educational operations. Mr. Case is a Republican. In 1875, he was joined in the bonds of holy wedlock, to Frances McBeth, daughter of Squire McBeth, this township. They have two children.

WILLIAM T. COOK, farmer, P. O. Bethel, was born in Maryland March 14, 1813; his parents were Amos and Anna (Matthews) Cook, natives of Pennsylvania, of English, Scotch and Irish descent. They emigrated from Maryland to Ohio in 1828, and settled in Clermont County, where the father died in 1841. The mother died in Brown County, in 1870, aged eighty-four years. The father was a wagon-maker and farmer by occupation. They had a family of eleven children, of whom eight reached their majority; their names were as follows: Charles (deceased), James (died in 1838), William T., Samuel N. (a farmer of this township), Jessie B. (died aged ten years), Amos B. (died in youth), Jacob M. (proprietor of saw-mill and chair factory), Anna E. (wife of Dr. Benjamin Catterton, of Indiana), Sarah (died in 1872), Jane and Hannah; the two latter are living with our subject who has never married and who is wonderfully attached to his brothers and sisters. He came to this county in 1852, and helped to build the Thornton Mill in which he had an interest until just before it burned. He subsequently purchased a farm and has since devoted his attention to farming. He is a well-read and thoroughly posted gentlemen, a Republican in politics but not radical in his veiws, and withal a very popular citizen.

S. M. COOK, farmer and stock-raiser, P. O. Bethel, was born in the State of Maryland March 1, 1815, and was educated in the common schools of that State. He followed his early occupation of wagon-maker until 1842, since which time he has devoted his time and attention to farming, now owning the farm on which he resides. He was married in 1842 to Adeline D. Thompson, daughter of Elisha Thompson, a native of the State of Maine. To this union, seven children were born—Perry T. (now residing in Kentucky), Cyrus T. (a resident of Brown County), Amos B., Jennie, Mollie, Bessie and C. W. Mr. and Mrs. Cook are both members of the Christian Church in which he has been Deacon and Elder. He is a Republican in politics and has been a Trustee and Treasurer of the township.

ANDREW COFFMAN, farmer, P. O. Hamersville, was born in Maryland November 13, 1818. His parents were John Coffman and Susan Coffman, but no relation to each other before their marriage. They came to Brown County in 1820, where they resided till death. The former died at the age of ninety-four years four months and twenty days. Mr. Coffman was reared on the old homestead farm, and has been engaged in farming during his life. He commenced life for himself by working on a farm for $14 per month. He worked this way for four years and nine months, and had then saved about $500. He bought some woodland, and upon reaching his twenty-first year, had cleared about twenty-five acres. He has been quite successful in his farming operations, now owning a good farm of 190 acres. His political views are Republican, and he has served several years as Director of his school district. He was married, October 14, 1843, to Mary A., daughter of Christian Gray. They have five children—Susan, Nelson B. (a teacher of a graded school in California), James W. (a farmer), Emma (wife of Charles Thompson, a farmer of Clark Township), and Sherman. Mrs. Coffman is a member of the M. E. Church.

Linda:

Well, I hope this is correct. In 1820 and 1830 the census enumerators spelled Gray and Grey. Also I think they misspelled Isaac and made it Isaac. I looked at it closely but that is really what is written. In 1840, someone made everyone Gray and Isaas became Isaac, etc. Very challenging to obtain. I could have missed some because I depended on Ancestry.com's index so.....

blessed. Those who were fortunately permitted to return feel a just pride in the war record of their township. There were tears and sorrows; their ranks and files had been fearfully thinned; the human sacrifice in behalf of the nation had been intensely severe; but better this sacrifice than a divided country.

While the men of the township contested the question of secession in the field, there was also an army of noble women at home, who bore an exalted part in the great contest. They never wearied in their efforts to supply to the soldiers at the front many tokens of remembrance; the sick were supplied with innumerable delicacies, and their fervent petitions were almost continuous to the God of battles for the cause of the Union; that right might triumph, and that the country might emerge from the great contest purified by defeat and disaster, till it be worthy of its founders and its defenders. The following list embraces nearly all who enlisted from this township; it is as near correct as can be obtained, since no record of enlistments was kept in the township. This list has been prepared with great care and labor. If any names have been omitted, it is to be regretted. It is possible that some names are recorded that do not properly belong to this township; if so, it is not for the purpose of over-estimating the township's honor, or encroaching upon the honor of any other portion of our great country. They served in nearly all the great battles of the rebellion; first, in Western Virginia, and, as the war progressed, they were scattered to almost every portion of the South, though the greatest number, perhaps, were engaged in Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi and Virginia. The following were commissioned officers from this township: George B. Bailey, Captain, Twelfth Ohio Volunteer Infantry; Joseph Blackburn, Captain Company F, Seventieth Ohio Volunteer Infantry; James Drennan, Captain Company F, Seventieth Ohio Volunteer Infantry; I. W. Adams, Second Lieutenant Company F, Seventieth Ohio Volunteer Infantry; D. A. Dodds, Captain Company F, Seventieth Ohio Veteran Volunteer Infantry; John Redman, Second Lieutenant, Eighty-ninth Ohio Veteran Volunteer Infantry; John Moore, Lieutenant in Tenth Kentucky Cavalry; Samuel Evans, First Lieutenant, Fifty-ninth United States Colored Infantry; John E. Carpenter, First Lieutenant, One Hundred and Seventy-fifth Ohio Volunteer Infantry; William Hubbert, First Lieutenant Company H, Seventieth Ohio Volunteer Infantry; Frank Harding, First Lieutenant Company H, Ohio Veteran Volunteer Infantry.

The enlisted men of Company F, Seventieth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, were: William Anderson, I. W. Adams, Benjamin Abrams, D. B. Brown, William Case, Henry Campbell, Dyans Campbell, Robert Campbell, D. A. Dodds, Joseph Dodds, Allen Dodds, Darius Dodds, Lawson Dragoo, Daniel Dragoo, Phillip Dragoo, J. B. Evans, Samuel Evans, John Flemming, Thomas Grier, James Galbraith, William Geddis, Paul Geddis, Oliver Gray, Caleb Glasscock, D. W. Games, W. T. Hook. William Hart, Henry Harding, Samuel Hiett, Griffith Hiett, John Hiett. William M. Haynes, Phillip Henderhand, B. F. Jacobs, George Jamison, Joseph Kilgore, P. J. Lane, Samuel Lyons, Ed Morgan, John McDaniel. Joseph McDaniel, D. E. Maddox, William Mills, John McDaniel, Jr., John Midghall, Alex Neil. John Newman, Daniel Reeder. Alex Rains. Benjamin Reeder, John Sibbald, James Sibbald, J. W. Shelton. Alfred Shelton, Lewis Shelton, James Scott, John Swisher, N. B. Thompson, James Waldron, G. H. White.

Those of Company H, Seventieth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, were: W. C. Buck, James Bradford, William Brooks, James Fryar, William Hubbert, Silas Hurin, John Hurin, Charles Jumper, Darius Kilgore, James Kilgore, James M. Lawwill, Jeremiah Mahanna, C. Mahanna, John Mahanna, Jesse McKinley, Samuel Reed. S. N. Sawyer, Thomas Simons, Charles Walker, J. M. Sutton. Mark O. Neal. William McCune, Michael O. Neal, Andrew Smalley.

could be at this late day. The following list contains the names of nearly all of the pioneers not mentioned heretofore: Jacob Swisher settled a little north of the present site of Hiett's Post Office, and died about twenty-five years ago; Timothy Shirly, Uriah White, James Parker, Jonathan Rees, Alexander Rees, Daniel Boone, Simon Reeder, John Scott, William Cooper, Ollie Kilgore, John Richmond, Samuel Haslam, a reed maker, Jonathan Ayres, Robert Covert, Gregory Glascock, first singing teacher of the township, Peter Glascock, John Blair, William Taylor, a soldier of the war of 1812, who died while in the service having a family of five small children, Thomas Shelton, James Howard, John Lack, James Higgins, Adam White, Richard Thomas, George Brown, ——— Bascom, father of Rev. Henry Bascom, Daniel aud John Moore, McKinney Burbage, Edward Veach, Henry Altic, Alexander Parker, Moses Race, John and James Stewart, brothers, who built a mill near the mouth of Little East Fork of Eagle Creek, Robert Taylor, Eli Hurin, father of Jeremiah and Silas and Samuel Hurin. Many of the men mentioned in the foregoing list were celebrated hunters, and some were "crack marksmen" with the rifle; John Gunsaulus is believed to have been as good as any of his day; he seldom missed his mark when the chances were favorable. It is related of him that he would bet on hitting a three-inch mark off-hand at a distance of 100 paces, and nearly always came off winner.

SCHOOLS.

The early settlers no doubt felt the great necessity of an education; they soon turned their attention to it, and began devising methods and providing means for educating their offspring. To this end, rude cabins were built by volunteer labor, and teachers paid by subscription, the rates paid per scholar for a term of thirteen weeks (sixty-five days) being from $1.50 to $2.50, owing to the number that could attend, making the wages of teachers from $8 to $10 per month. The books then used were Dilworth and Guthrie's arithmetics, Webster's and Cobb's spellers, English reader and American preceptor, Linley, Murray's and Kirham's grammars and Olney's atlas and geography. The Testament was also much used as a reader.

One of the oldest schoolhouses stood near the center of the township on land then owned by John Evans, now by H. V. Martin, and was built in 1805 or 1806. George Harrison, Adam Calduward, a Mr. Swan and Samuel Ewings were the first teachers, teaching in the order named, as near as can be ascertained. The house was abandoned about 1823. About the year 1812, a log schoolhouse was erected on the farm now owned by D. W. Earley, about three hundred yards northeast of Ebenezer Church. The first teachers were Levi D. Beverage and Isaac W. Gibson. In 1822, the house was moved to what is now the corner of the Ebenezer Churchyard.

In 1810 or 1811, a log cabin was built near Gilbert's mill-dam, about two hundred yards south of the junction of the Ripley and Bradysville and the Iron Bridge & Bradysville Turnpikes. James Said, a Mr. Goodwin, William McCalla, Silas Clark, John Coxet, Royal Tyler and Reuben Case were all primitive teachers there. This house was used for a schoolhouse till 1843, when a new house was built one-half mile below it on the farm now owned by Dyas Gilbert. This was the first frame house used for school purposes in the township, and was twenty feet wide by twenty-five feet long. It was built by subscription, and cost $250, seats and desks excepted. Nathan Gilbert, son of William Gilbert, taught the first school in the new house.

The whole number of districts in the township, except Aberdeen Special District, is thirteen, with three fractional of Union Township and two of Adams County.

Benjamin Beasley, about the year 1797, built a cabin on the farm now owned by his grand-daughter, Mrs. Cord, about four miles north of where Aberdeen now stands. He planted an orchard of apple, peach and pear trees, and as soon as the peach trees came into bearing there was more fruit than could be used by the family or than could be sold; he erected a distillery, which he operated till his trees stopped bearing, and distilled the surplus fruit into peach and apple brandy. He was a soldier of the war of 1812, and a surveyor by profession. He was a native of Virginia, and moved to Kentucky about the year 1789; his wife Mary died about 1844, and he in 1846; both are buried in the family graveyard on the farm where he located. Nathan Ellis is believed to be about the second to make a fixed residence in this township. He located upon the present site of Aberdeen, and laid out the upper part of the village. Before the village was laid out, he established a ferry, the first one between Maysville, Ky., and this township; a short time after the ferry was established, a hotel was built by Evan Campbell. Ellis soon sold one-half of his ferry to Campbell, and Ellis became joint partner in the hotel. After the Evans ferry was established at the mouth of Fishing Gut Creek, Mr. Ellis bought five acres of land from James Edwards, next to the hill, on what is known as Gum street, for the purpose of making a public highway to the landing. He planted an orchard, which is supposed to be the first in the township. He was the first Justice of the Peace in the township, and died at an advanced age. His remains were interred on the top of the river hill back of Aberdeen on the farm belonging to A. J. Brookover's heirs. He was the father of a large and quite an intelligent and influential family. In politics, he was a Democrat.

Evan Campbell, a native of Redstone, Penn., emigrated to Kentucky about the year 1800, and settled three miles above Limestone (now Maysville) about 1801 or 1802. He purchased land opposite Maysville about the time Nathan Ellis established a ferry, and opened up a small hotel, it being the first in the township. Mr. Campbell owned a half-interest in the second steam ferry that plied between Aberdeen and Maysville. He died at a good old age, and left a large family, some of whom still live in Aberdeen.

John Gray and his wife, Mary (Stewart) Gray, moved from Nicholas County, Ky., to Huntington Township about the year 1799. They were the parents of a large family of children. They were both quite old when they were called from earth. Joseph Gray, their son, is now the owner of the real estate on which his father settled on locating in Ohio. Joseph Gray was born near where he now resides, on the Aberdeen and Zanesville pike in 1799. In 1817, he was married to Jane Kilgore, of Nicholas County, Ky., who died a few years ago. Mr. Gray is now the oldest person living in the township who was born within it.

William Hutchinson was born in Loudoun County, Va., about 1763, and about the year 1800 was married to Rebecca Cooper. He emigrated in the same year to Kentucky, and located at or near Washington, where he lived for eight years, when he bought sixty acres of land in this township about one and one-half miles from Aberdeen, where he lived till his death. They were the parents of eleven children, six sons and five daughters, all of whom lived to be grown. The family were all Democrats. He died January 7, 1847; his wife died January 15, 1853.

James Edwards and his brother were kidnaped in Scotland while small boys, and brought to America and sold into some servitude in Virginia at an early day. James was married to Sarah Jacobs, and in 1796 moved to Ohio, where he bought 1,000 acres of land of Col. P. Slaughter, who received the land for services in the Revolutionary war. Mr Edwards built a cabin at the mouth of Pythias; was first Chancellor Commander of Gretna Green Lodge, No. 99, K. P., and in the winter of 1881 was elected a Representative to the Grand Lodge at Columbus, Ohio. Russellville, where he and daughter, Wanda, made their home.

Mr. Carey was a life member of Russellville Presbyterian Church, and elder for 20 years. Grandfather James Baird was an elder for 40 years. Daughter Wanda Carey commuted weekly, by horse and buggy, to Georgetown to atten[illegible] school. She graduated in the class of 1906.

[illegible]oung Scotsman, William Tait Paterson, emigrated from Glasgow, Scotland, to Canada. From 1906 to 1910 he taught school and preached in mission churches in Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

September, 1910, Paterson enrolled at Lane Seminary, Cincinnati, to study for the ministry. November, 1910, to February, 1913, he was student supply minister for Russellville, Red Oak and Decatur Presbyterian Churches. This ministry was very rewarding, and resulted in his marriage to Wanda Chase Carey.

Rev. Paterson was ordained and installed at the Presbyterian Church in Cumberland, Ohio, May 15, 1913. January 22, 1920, Rev. Paterson was installed as minister at the Norwood Presbyterian Church, Cincinnati. He served here until May 8, 1947.

The Paterson children are William Tait, James Carey, Samuel Doak, Esther Lowry, and Donald George.

The Paterson children delighted in spending three months each summer in Brown County. These visits were to grandfather Carey's farm and to the farm of Aunt Grace and Uncle Ed McCutchen. Aunt Stella Baldridge helped with the care of the children. Grace and Stella were sisters-in-law of George Carey.

Grandfather Carey died in 1930. Soon after, grandson Bill Paterson moved to the Carey farm to help in its operation with Aunt Stella Baldridge. During this period, Bill attended and graduated from Russellville High School.

Bill very much enjoyed his time spent in Brown County and the many friends he made in those two years. Bill died in March, 1991.

George Carey and many of his family are buried in Linwood Cemetery at Russellville. Submitted by Samuel Doak Paterson.

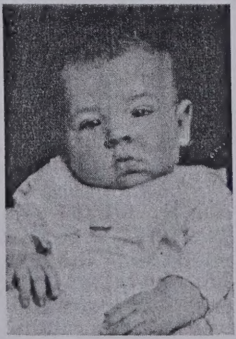
CAPT. JAMES A. CARR - From the Ripley Bee Dec. 7, 1881: Capt. James A. Carr was born in Huntingdon County, PA, Dec. 3, 1794, and came to the territory of Ohio with his father, five years before Ohio was admitted to the Union as a state. He is the only surviving member of a family of 11 children. He has always lived in the immediate neighborhood of where his father first settled. He is one of the few survivors of the War of 1812, and the oldest Free Mason in Brown County. Saturday, Dec. 3, 1881, being his 87th birthday, his relations concluded to celebrate the event by a surprise dinner. About 9 o'clock they commenced arriving, bringing baskets laden with provisions, and at one o'clock, as good a dinner was served as mortal could wish, and all present did it ample justice. The old gentleman was the recipient of a new suit of clothes and other presents from the near relatives. He enjoyed the day hugely and related many incidents of his pioneer life which were very interesting to the company. Many relatives here met for the first time, and all enjoyed themselves to the utmost. A noticeable feature of the gathering, was the number of babies, and among those worthy of special notice was little Mattie Fordice, granddaughter of Col. John Henry, for smallness and beauty, and Henry, son of Samuel Pickerill, the prince of fat babies. None were present but relatives of the old gentleman. We append a list of them. His children: Andrew Carr, wife and three children; Geo Boatman, wife and three children; Thomas C., and Miss Phoebe Carr.



"The Prince of Fat Babies", Henry Pickerill, guest at a pioneer's birthday.

Relatives: Joseph Bennington and wife; Miss Lizzie Bennington; Col. John Henry and wife; John Pickerill, wife and child; William Howland and wife; Mary Williams and three children; John H. Carr, wife and daughter; William, Marion, and John Carr; Miss Tabitha Carr; Mrs. Martha McKee; Miss Martha McKee; J.Q.A. Carr, wife and daughter; Robert Carr, wife and two children; T.M. Thompson, wife and child; John P. Kinkead, wife and two children; James McKee, wife and child; Mrs. Geeslin; Samuel M. Pickerill, wife and child.

James Carr died June 22, 1887. He is buried in the Old Red Oak Cemetery, off the West-Henry Road, in Union Township, Brown County, OH. His sister, Mary (Carr-Henry) Dixon, is also buried in this cemetery. His brother, Thomas, and mother, Catherine Carr, are buried in the Red Oak Church Cemetery. James, Thomas and Mary are the only children of Andrew and Catherine (Criswell??) Carr that we have any record of. Submitted by Christian Moler, a great-great-great-great-nephew.

Siblings to Thomas were: James and John, two of the earliest Masons in the county; Robert, Mary, Katherine, and Jane. Katherine Carr died Aug. 22, 1843. She is buried near her daughter, Ida May McPherson Jones. Joana, the youngest of Thomas Carr, Sr.'s children, married John Kinkead.

After Matilda died Oct. 21, 1850, Thomas, Sr., married Nancy Neudigate of Mason County, KY, in 1852. They had two children: Charles, married Nancy Nix, died Texas in 1915; and Franklin, who married Nellie Conner. Franklin also died in Texas, in 1912.

Thomas, Sr., farmed successfully in Red Oak for many years and died there Feb. 22, 1881. His second wife, Nancy, died in 1870. Thomas, Matilda, Nancy, and two of the babies are buried in Red Oak Cemetery. Submitted by Leontine Jones Launer.

JOSEPH ANDREW (NEWT) AND AMANDA (DUGAN) CARRINGTON - Joseph Andrew (Newt) (1862-1946) was born near Vanceburg, Lewis County, KY, son of Jesse B. Carrington, Jr., and Serelda Jackson. Family oral history indicates that Serelda Jackson was a relative of Stonewall Jackson, the Confederate General of Civil War fame. There was a brother John, a brother Charles; possibly other children, but records are not available. The family origin is traced back to eastern Maryland. The ancestral line runs back through Jesse B., Sr. (1777-), William and Timothy.

Joseph's early years were spent in farming and working in timber and logging operations. In the late 1880s, he came to Brown County where he met and married Amanda Jane Dugan (1867-1937) in 1887. Amanda Jane Dugan was the daughter of Shafer H. Dugan (1842-1912) and Mary Francis Cahall (1847-1932), granddaughter of (Andrew?) Jackson Dugan (1814-1884) and Mary E. Drake (1816-1900); great-granddaughter of Joseph Dugan (1748-1829) and Deborah Norman (1777-1837).

They set up housekeeping near Vanceburg, KY. Joseph told of unloading their household and kitchen items when Amanda discovered she did not have a rolling pin. She needed one for her biscuit dough, so he went into a nearby woods and cut a limb from a hickory tree. He peeled and trimmed it and made her a rolling pin. It was the only one she ever had in their nearly 50 years of married life. They had 11 children: Horace (1888-1965), Robert (1890-1971), Joseph Cleo (1891-1989), Ada (1893-1991), Emerson (1896-), Lola (1898-1987), Myrtle (1900-1902), Lytheo (1903-1903), Ben (1903-1985), Earl (1907-) and Emma (1910-).

He was gifted musically and performed on violin for many years, playing for dances, some radio shows, and with different local groups. His musical talent was inherited by his sons, who performed with him as they grew up. This talent for music is also evident in many of his grandchildren and great-grandchildren, at least two of whom play professionally. He has a large group of descendants, and at a 1991 reunion about 120 were present. Submitted by Olan N. Carrington.

ROBERT AGUSTUS AND BETTY DEORA (CRAWFORD) CARRINGTON - Robert Agustus Carrington (1890-1971) was born in Levanna, OH, the second son of Joseph Andrew Carrington (1862-1946) and Amanda Jane Dugan (1867-1937). His father moved his family to Lewis County, KY, where Robert lived until his teens. The family later lived for a time in Portsmouth, OH, and then in Higginsport, OH. Around 1910, he came to Georgetown, Ohio for work in a shoe factory.

He married Betty Deora Crawford (1895-1964) July 27, 1912. She was the daughter of Harry and Fannie Laycock Crawford (1867-1935), a direct descendant of Revolutionary War soldiers as follows: India Ann Evans Laycock, Lucinda Curry Evans and Robert Curry, who came to Brown County (then part of Clermont County) in 1801. India Ann Evans' father, Elijah Evans, was the son of soldier John Evans, who is buried in the Russellville Cemetery.

Robert and Deora had one son, William Andrew, born Feb. 12, 1915. Robert spent the years 1912 to 1944 farming. In 1944, they moved to Dayton, OH, where their son was working.

In Dayton, Robert worked for Delco Products Division of General Motors until his retirement in 1955, when they returned to Georgetown and lived there until their death.

Robert was a talented musician who played violin and banjo. He was a member of a local group called "Uncle Charlie Warner and His Coon Dog Orchestra". In the 1920s they had a regular Saturday-evening program on Radio Station WLW in Cincinnati, OH. That program was heard over most of the entire middle west.

In later years he played for local dances and civic events with his brothers and his son, William. (see Joseph Andrew Carrington history) Submitted by Emerson Carrington.

WILLIAM ANDREW, SR. AND MARY ELIZABETH (COX) CARRINGTON - William, the only child of Robert A. and Deora Crawford Carrington, was born on the family farm (now a part of Georgetown Village) Feb. 12, 1915. He attended Georgetown schools and graduated in 1933. After graduation, he worked at various jobs until 1937, when he was employed by a local car dealer to work in the parts dept. He moved to Dayton, OH, in 1940 for work in that field (Auto Parts & Service). While living in Dayton, he married his Brown County sweetheart, Mary Elizabeth Cox, on Nov. 28, 1942. In that same year, due to wartime shortages, he was hired for security work at a war production plant. He and others of that group enlisted in the Air Force Military Police Auxiliary with headquarters at Wright Patterson Air Force Base; for the purpose of wartime production protection. He was honorably discharged in 1945. After the war, he returned to automotive work.

About 1950, he began photographic work on a part-time basis and did advanced study at the Dayton Art Institute. He set up a studio in his home, did his own developing and made his own developing fluid.

His wife, Mary Elizabeth Cox, the daughter of the late Richard O. and Bessie Young Cox, was born near Manchester, Adams County, OH, on July 12, 1921. She attended the Ripley Schools and graduated from high school there in 1939. Mary is a direct descendant of Thomas Young, one of eight brothers who emigrated from Scotland landing to this country Nov. 11, 1722. Her lineage is as follows: Bessie A. Young, Meredith Young, Nelson Young, Thomas W. Young, Daniel Young (Revolutionary War veteran of the New Jersey Regiment, son of immigrant Thomas Young).

William and Mary had two sons born in Dayton, OH, William Andrew, Jr., born July 17, 1946, and John Lloyd Carrington born Feb. 15, 1951. In 1955, they moved back to Georgetown where William Sr., worked in the automotive business until 1962. He then started in home building and land development, which later was annexed to the village of Georgetown. He retired after the construction of their present home in 1987.

After their retirement, Mary became active in Church and Sunday School work, and for many years she has been in some Hospital Auxiliary work as volunteer. She is a member of the Georgetown Flower and Garden Club, in which she has held all offices. While President of the Garden Club, she started the landscaping in the Atrium of the Brown County General Hospital each spring. With help, she learned to swing her mattock (a Mother's Day present) and do the planting, sometimes alone. Most of all she loved to sing in the community Choir (no longer existing). She also belongs to the Brown County Historical Society and has been a moving force, working long hours to help gather the family histories recorded in this book. She was active in charitable organizations, and while her sons were in school helped with all activities, including being an officer in the Band Mothers' Club. She and William, as well as sons Bill, Jr., and John, were members and workers in all phases of the Hamersville Church of Christ. Mary remembers these days as some of the happiest. Submitted by Mary and Bill Carrington.

dealers. Taylorsville, on the Aberdeen & Zanesville pike, three miles from the Ohio River, was laid out by William Lawwill, Sr., in 1850, and contains two stores, two smith shops, a school building and wood shop. It has a population of eighty-three.

Hiett is situated about six and a half miles north of Aberdeen, on the Ripley & Bradyville Turnpike, and contains a post office, dry goods and grocery store, one church (Presbyterian), one doctor (W. H. Evans) and stock scales. W. D. Grierson is Postmaster, and also runs the store. A few years ago, a Granger Lodge and another store existed here. The mail is semi-weekly. The Post Office Department has granted a tri-weekly mail, but as yet nothing further has been done to establish the new route.

LODGES.

Aberdeen Lodge, No. 149, F. & A. M., was chartered October 20, 1847. The first meeting after dispensation was granted was held April 23, 1845. The first officers were: Caleb Atherton, M.; Marshall McKinley, S. W.; Thomas Mills, J. W.; T. H. Worstess, Treasurer; James Dennis, Secretary; T. M. Moore, S. D.; Jesse Ellis, J. D.; James Helm, Tiler. These were also charter members. The officers for the year 1882 are: T. Heaton, M.; T. M. Martin, S. W.; Samuel Evans, J. W.; John Brookover, Treasurer; S. C. Bradford, Secretary; James Drennin, S. D.; G. Sorries, J. D.; W. R. Ellis, Tiler. The lodge is in fair working order, and has at present about sixty members.

Charter Oak Lodge, No. 137, I. O. O. F., was instituted October 12, 1849, with the following charter members: James C. Power, W. C. Clift, John McCalla, James S. Scott, Dyas Power, John Lepage, Thomas Sharp, James Bricker and John Stevens. James C. Power is the only charter member now belonging to the lodge, and Dyas Power, John McCalla and J. C. Power are the only charter members now living. The present officers are: A. B. Gray, N. G.; W. R. Brittingham, V. G.; A. H. Porter, Secretary; L. Schlitz, Treasurer. This lodge is in a good condition, has a good, comfortable hall, a large cemetery below Aberdeen, and a surplus fund of more than $1,000. The present number of members is seventy-five.

Magnolia Encampment, No. 186, I. O. O. F., of Aberdeen, was instituted June 17, 1875, with the following charter members: Dyas Gilbert, Daniel Pence, A. H. Porter, W. R. Flaugher, Thomas Sharp, J. W. Cheesman, P. W. Waldron, J. C. Waldron, J. W. Stewart, L. Schlitz and G. H. Wheeler. The present officers are: M. Jones, C. P.; John Curtiss, S. W.; John Sutton, H. P.; L. Schlitz, Treasurer; and A. H. Porter, Scribe. The present number of members is sixty-five. This is a flourishing society, many of its members being leading citizens of the township.

Gretna Green Lodge, No. 99, K. of P., of Aberdeen, was instituted, under a charter of the Grand Lodge of Ohio, May 18, 1876. The charter members were: G. H. Wheeler, Dyas Gilbert, Lawrence Schlitz, S. C. Bradford, F. W. Sharp, E. M. Flaugher, F. H Miller, C. B. Sutton, P. J. Neeper, John Crane, John Enis, Moses Jones, A. B. Jones, G. W. Schlitz, A. R. C.; Robert Helm, Prelate; Dyas Gilbert, Representative to Grand Lodge. This is a flourishing society, and bids fair to become the largest in the township.

GENERAL.

This township, on a full vote, could poll about seven hundred votes. The largest vote ever polled in the township was in 1880, at the Presidential elec-

Thompson owns a good farm, which is the place the Evans family settled on in 1800. He is a neat and tidy kind of farmer, and a progressive man in every respect.

HON. J. C. WALDRON, farmer, P. O. Aberdeen. This gentleman, whose portrait appears in this work, was born in Adams County, Ohio, in 1817, and is a son of John and Rebecca M. (Cartwright) Waldron. John Waldron was a son of David and Martha Waldron; he was a native of Scotland and she of Wales. They located in Adams County, Ohio, in 1806, where they lived and died. John Waldron was married to Rebecca, daughter of Peter Cartwright, and a relative of Peter Cartwright, of itinerant preacher fame. In 1829, he removed to near where our subject lives, and purchased fifty acres of land, on which he died in 1838, aged forty-five years. Eleven children were born to them, seven of whom are living, viz., John C., Francis P., Peter W., Mary, Margaret J., Eliza and Etheldra. The deceased are Andrew J., Elizabeth and two that died in infancy. Mr. Waldron served in the war of 1812. Our subject was reared on the farm, and had only twenty-nine days of schooling; his father dying when he was young, the care of the family devolved upon him. On November 18, 1841, he was married to Eleanor, the daughter of James and Alice Howard, after which he purchased the interest of the other heirs to his father's estate, on which he lived until 1858, when he purchased other land, living thereon till 1869, when he came to his present place of residence. In 1869, he was the Democratic nominee for Representative of Brown County, was elected, and served in the Legislature two years; he was re-elected and served two years longer. During the first time, he was Committeeman in "privileges and elections," and on "railroads." The second term, in "claims and privileges" and "elections." During the time he was in the Legislature, it is said by one who knows, that Mr. Waldron was never called to a point of order, and that he never raised a question on a point of order without carrying his objection. He has served as Justice of the Peace fifteen years; Assessor, four years; Constable, seven years; Clerk, one term, and Deputy Tax Collector, four years. He has been a delegate to the State Democratic Convention many times, and always attends the Democratic Congressional and Senatorial Conventions. In politics, he has been active for over forty years; was reared in the school of Democracy, and has been a zealous and warm supporter of that party's principles; he is a worthy member of the order of Odd Fellows, belonging to the subordinate lodge and Encampment; he is also an acceptable member of the Christian Church, to which he has belonged for more than forty years. Mr. Waldron has made life a fair success; he began with no means; he has been liberal in his donations to worthy enterprises, and has always advocated public improvement. By his first wife he had six children, all deceased, viz., Susanna, Millie J., Robert B., James D., Lewis E. and an infant. Mrs. Waldron died October 22, 1868, aged forty-six years; his second marriage was celebrated with Katie, the daughter of Edward and Orpha (Gray) McGee, March 2, ~~1872~~ 1876, and by her has had two children, viz., Caleb A. and Joshua.

P. W. WALDRON, teacher and farmer, Aberdeen, was born November 13, 1834, and is a son of John and Rebecca (Cartwright) Waldron. His early education was received in district schools, and afterward he enjoyed the privilege of a twenty-two months' term of study in the union school at Aberdeen, Ohio. He has followed teaching very successfully for a period of twenty-seven years in the schools of his township; he has been Clerk and Assistant Clerk of the township for twenty years, and Mayor of Aberdeen one year; he is a member of Aberdeen Lodge, No. 137, I. O. O. F., and to Maysville (Ky.) Encampment No. 133. May 13, 1858, he was married to Mary E., the daughter of Colvin Shaw, by whom he has had the following children: Elizabeth, Nellie, Jennie, Mary, Arbelia, William, Fred, Arthur, Lillie (deceased), and Frank (deceased). Mr. Waldron is a Democrat in politics; his family and self are connected with the Christian Church. In August, 1864, he enlisted in Company D, One Hundred and Seventy-fifth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, but was rejected after serving one month; he commanded the Third Independent Battery Ohio National Guards for two years.

ADAM WHITE (deceased) was born in one of the New England States July 13, 1765, and was a son of Peter and Eve (Fox) White, natives of Germany. In

Linda:

Here is the first installment of the Adams Co census series on the Grays. Sue suggested that she copied and pasted to her word processor but I am not sure how she is bringing hers up. When I bring up the Grays in Adams Co. they come up in alphabetical order and it would be a mess to me to decide what wife went to what husband etc. so I will just do it like I have done the previous ones.

First Generation

I. GEORGE BOONE First, born in England.

Second Generation

II. GEORGE BOONE Second (son of George Boone First), born in or near the City of Exeter in Devonshire, England. Died aged sixty. He was a blacksmith.

He married Sarah Uppey, who died aged eighty, and who "never had an aching bone or decayed tooth."

Third Generation

III. GEORGE BOONE Third (son of George Boone Second and wife Sarah Uppey), born in 1666 at Stoak, England, a village near the City of Exeter in Devonshire; died 27 July (Old Style) or 7 Aug. (New Style), 1744, in Exeter township, Berks Co., Pa., aged seventy-eight years.

Married Mary Maugridge (b. 1669 in Bradninch, England, eight miles from Exeter in Devonshire), a daughter of John and Mary (Milton) Maugridge.

George Boone and wife Mary were members of the Society of Friends (Quakers) in Callumpton, Devonshire, from which Meeting they took a letter of recommendation to the Society of Friends in America. Whether they were dissatisfied with their condition as Quakers in England, or whether they were impelled by that desire for adventure and travel which was later so strongly manifested in Daniel Boone and his brothers, will never be known. On the 17th of August, 1717, with six children, George Boone and his wife left the town of Bradninch in Devonshire and went to Bristol, where they set sail for America.

reside in the log house until his death. It is quite possible that some of his married children were then living at home with young families, and that George Boone and his wife Mary preferred the quiet of the smaller home for themselves, as they were no longer young. When George Boone III died it is said that his remains were carried into the stone house and from there to his burial in the Friends' burying-ground at Exeter Meeting House. An old family Bible records the fact that "when Grandfather died he left 8 children, 52 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren living, in all 70, being as many persons as the house of Jacob which came into Egypt."

In accordance with the custom of the Friends Society, no stones mark the graves of George Boone III and his wife Mary, but a far greater memorial is found in the thousands of descendants who unite in honoring their memory.

CHILDREN.—
(All born in England.)

+1 George Boone IV, b. 13 July, 1690 (Old Style).

2 Sarah Boone, b. 18 Feb., 1691 or '92 (Old Style) or 29 Feb., 1792 (New Style); d. probably before 1744; m. 15 Mar., 1715, Jacob Stover, also spelled Stuber and Stowber. Her marriage is recorded in Christ Church, Philadelphia. She was one of the three eldest children of George Boone III, who came to America in advance of the parents; was married and settled in Oley township, Philadelphia Co. (now Berks), before their arrival. (See old James Boone Genealogy.) While she was the first of the family to settle in that locality, she evidently did not affiliate with the Friends Meeting there, as no data concerning her appears in the Quaker records. She was no doubt absorbed by the German element into which she married. It is also possible that she died quite young, as it is recorded that her father, when he died in 1744, left eight children. As all the others are known to have survived their father, Sarah must have been the first one to die. Her descendants, if any, are unknown. We find that one Jacob Stauber was granted land, on Oley Creek, Philadelphia Co. (now Berks Co.), in 1714. (b) It is thought that Jacob removed to Virginia, probably after his wife's death, for we find in Virginia record of one Jacob Stover's sale of land in Augusta Co. (now Rockingham Co.), to George Boone of Oley; one tract of 500 acres and another of 1000 acres described as near the end of North Mountain, on a small branch of the Shenandoah, part of 5000 acres laid out for Stover by the Council of Virginia July, 1730. In 1738 a wife Margaret (Stover) signed a deed for land sold by Jacob to another person. Margaret was probably a second wife. (c)

+3 Squire Boone, b. 25 Nov., 1696.

+4 Mary Boone, b. 23 Sept., 1699.

5 John Boone, b. 3 Jan., 1701 or '02. (Old Style) or 14 Jan., 1702 (New Style), in Bradninch, Devonshire, England; d. Oct., 1785 in Exeter Twp., Berks Co., Pa. He never married; was a school teacher and man of some learning. It was he who preserved the record of the family births and deaths and passed them on to his nephew James (son of James and Mary) who compiled them into the quaint genealogy which has come down to us. He died in his eighty-fourth year; having lived in America exactly 68 years. His will, which was signed 5 Oct., 1785, proven 22 Oct., 1785, mentions nephews Judah, Moses, James and Joshua; and Martha, wife of George Hughes, Rachel, wife of William Wilcoxson, Anne, wife of Abraham Lincoln, and Mary, wife of Thomas Lee; all of whom were children of his brother James. He also mentions an Isaiah Boone. (e)

6 Joseph Boone, b. 5 Apr., 1704; d. 30 Jan., 1776, in his 72nd year; m. Catherine —— (d. 31 Jan., 1778). Their descendants are not known, and no authentic knowledge of Joseph has been found except the above data from the old James Boone Genealogy. Several marriages under the name Joseph Boone appear at various dates in Exeter Records, the earliest reading as follows:—

"8-30-1733, Joseph Boone produced a paper of condemnation for proceeding in marriage contrary to order."

Also a Joseph Boone, Jr., married in 1751, which may have been his son. It is said that Joseph resided on the farm in Berks Co., where a man named Washington Gulden lived in 1860. (d) The name of Joseph Boone appears in a list of 76 taxables in Exeter Twp., 1741 (f) and in the land warrants of Pennsylvania, a Joseph Boone received in Philadelphia Co., 200 acres Jan. 4, 1734; 200 acres Mar. 4, 1750; and 50 acres in Lancaster Co., Mar. 4, 1750. In an indenture concerning land of Squire Boone (the original of which is in possession of the Historical Society of Berks Co.) Squire's property is described as adjoining lands of Joseph Boone, in 1768.

+7 Benjamin Boone, b. 16 July, 1706 (Old Style).
+8 James Boone, b. 7 July, 1709 (Old Style).
+9 Samuel Boone, b. about 1711.

BOONE FAMILY

Explanatory Notes

HOW TO TRACE A LINE OF ANCESTRY IN THIS BOOK

Each descendant of George and Mary Boone is numbered in small print when his name first appears among the children of his parents. If he marries and has children, his name appears again in the following generation, bearing the same number, this time as the head of a family, in large print. If a name is to be thus repeated there will be a small cross (+) before the name and number when first given.

Thus in order to trace the ancestry of any one person, first find his name as given in small print. Above his name will be found the biography of his parent, with name and number in large print. Turning back to the preceding generation, find this parent's name and number in small print, headed by his parent. This is the grandparent of the person you started from. Trace the numbers back in this way through the generations until George Boone III is reached. To trace a person's descendants reverse the process and trace from the early to the late generations. In a few cases it will be found that descendants have not been given a serial number. This is because their names were received after the numbering had been finished.

The ancestral line in parentheses following each subject's name, such as James Boone (Samuel^{5}; William^{4}; George^{3}), means simply that James is a son of Samuel, who was a son of William who was a son of George; or that James' father was Samuel, his grandfather William and his great-grandfather George. When a woman's name appears in the ancestral line, her full maiden name is used. The small superior figure indicates the generation.

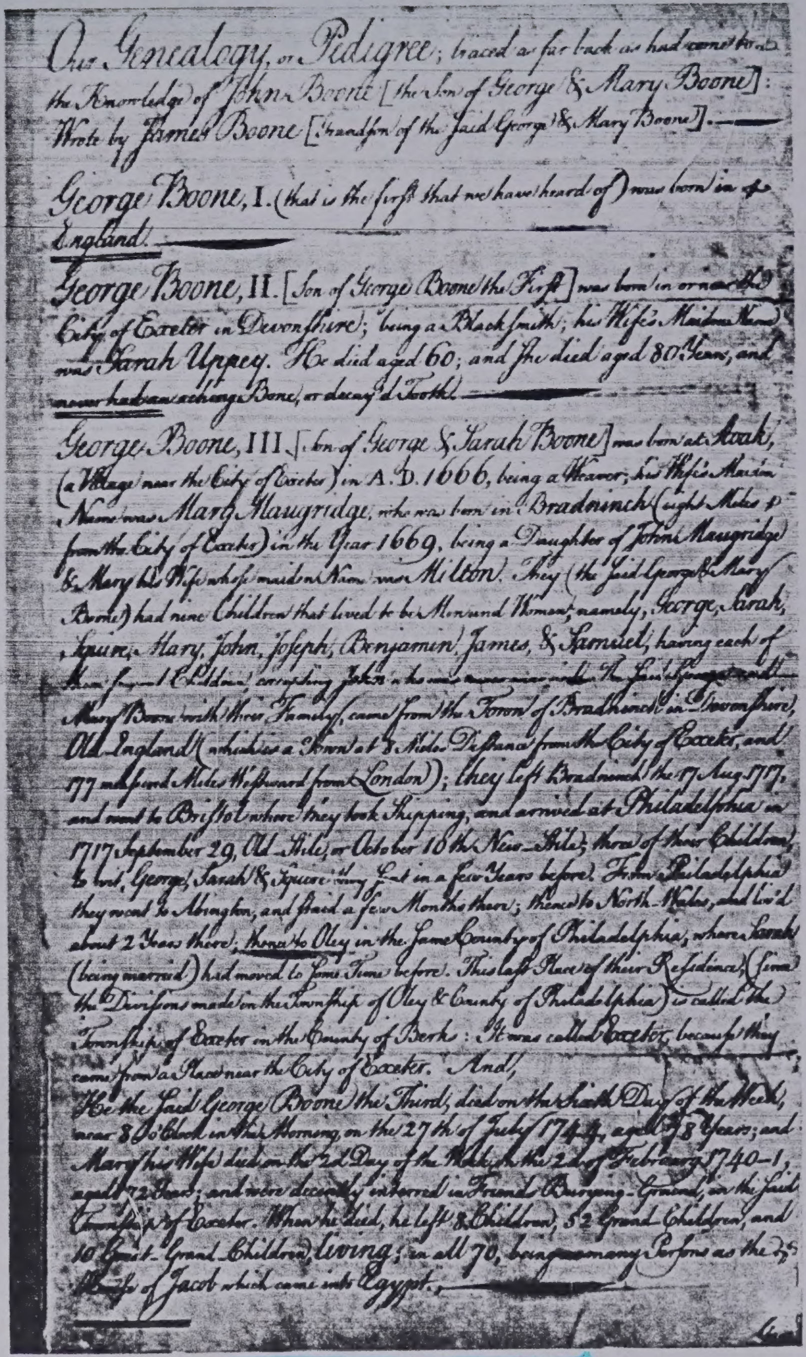
OLD AND NEW STYLE OF TIME

It must not be forgotten, in reading many early records, especially those of the Society of Friends, that dates prior to 1752 are usually given in the Old Style or Julian Time. A simple explanation of this change of time is to be found in "Our Calendar", a pamphlet by Gilbert Cope of West Chester, Pa., an eminent genealogist. It reads:—

> "An act of Parliment was passed in 1751, prescribing the adoption of the Gregorian Calendar throughout Great Britian and her colonies; making the succeeding year begin with the first of January and dropping eleven nominal days (3-13) from the month of September, 1752, so that what would have been the third of the month was called the 14th. The Quakers at their yearly meeting adopted this method, directing the members to recognize the change of style, and decreeing that thereafter the months should be numbered beginning with January. Formerly their numbering had begun with the month called March."

Hence by merely adding eleven days to a date given in Old Style, we have the corresponding date according to our present calendar. In Julian or "Old Style" time, prior to 1752, the year began March 25th. In Gregorian or "New Style" time, the year begins with January 1st.

suits, although ever ready to be at the forefront of any progressive movement requiring action and initiative. Its later members have joined the great ranks of those who are engaged in the fields of commerce, agriculture, finance and education, and thus are doing their humble share towards making the United States the greatest and most progressive of all nations.



Our Genealogy, or Pedigree; traced as far back as had come to the Knowledge of John Boone [the Son of George & Mary Boone]: Wrote by James Boone [Grandſon of the ſaid George & Mary Boone].

George Boone, I. (that is the firſt that we have heard of) was born in England.

George Boone, II. [Son of George Boone the Firſt] was born in or near the City of Exeter in Devonſhire; being a Blackſmith; his Wife's Maiden Name was Sarah Uppey. He died aged 60; and ſhe died aged 80 Years, and never had an aching Bone, or decay'd Tooth.

They had definitely decided to put the Old World, with its customs and traditions, behind them, to brave the danger and uncertainty of an ocean voyage, and to link their fortunes with the New World which beckoned so alluringly from across the sea. This momentous decision was not made without wise consideration, however, for their three eldest children, George, Squire and Sarah, had been sent to America a few years before to investigate conditions. This was in 1713 or earlier, as we have record of the marriage of George Boone, Jr., in America in 1713. There is an interesting field for thought in the question of what influences brought about this emigration which means so much to all of us who are their descendants. One tradition is that William Penn was a friend of George Boone, and had persuaded him to emigrate to America. There is no doubt that their Quaker affiliation had much to do with the matter.

George Boone was a weaver by trade, and had no doubt, by frugal living and diligent application to his trade, and we know not what other sacrifices, saved up quite a sum of money for this faring forth. Being people of simple tastes, they probably took with them only such "goods and chattels" as could be conveniently carried.

No record was left of the long and perilous voyage across the Atlantic, and even the name of the vessel is unknown. They arrived at Philadelphia on the 29th of September (Old Style) or 10th of October (New Style), 1717. We like to picture them as being met by friends as they stepped onto the crude landing place at Philadelphia. At least we can be reasonably sure that they were met with open arms by their three children, George, Squire and Sarah, who poured into their eager ears bright accounts of the wonderful new land which was to become their future home. It must have been a happy reunion for George and Mary Boone, who had been separated for several years from their three eldest children. Once more they were surrounded by all their beloved sons and daughters, who were destined to become the progenitors of a family as staunch, sturdy and typically American as any which ever helped to build our nation. The little group had come to stay; to become a part of the very root and fiber of the New World. There was no looking backward, or thought of returning to England with possible gains. It is reasonable to suppose that of all the family the mother may have been the only one who sometimes, in the years that followed, longed for the quiet peace of the old home village in England, with its mellow church bells, old garden hedges, and kindly gossiping neighbors.

It seems that when George Boone III and his family arrived in America they had as yet decided upon no definite location for a home. They went first to Abington, a village near Philadelphia, where the eldest son George had married and had lived since 1713. There they remained a few months; then went to North Wales in Philadelphia Co., where they lived some two years; and finally in 1720, to Oley township in Philadelphia Co. (now Exeter township in Berks Co.). There George Boone took a grant of land and founded his permanent home. When the divisions were made, in the township of Oley and County of Philadelphia, the new township was called "Exeter" in honor of the old home in England. There may also have been other families in that locality who came from old Exeter, but George Boone and his sons appear to have been the most prominent members of the community.

Soon after their arrival in America they had become members of the Gwynedd Monthly Meeting of Friends. No doubt their early residence in North Wales came within the scope of Gwynedd Meeting, which embraced also their new home in Oley. This latter section soon became a separate meeting called Oley Meeting, which name was later changed to Exeter Meeting. Several items concerning George Boone III, are found in the Friends' Records, the earliest being as follows:—

> "10-31-1717" (Dec. 31) "George Boone, Sr. produced a certificate of his good life and conversation from the Monthly Meeting at Callumpton in Great Britain, which was read and well received."

In 1720, George Boone was called to account for allowing the courtship between his daughter Mary and John Webb. Just how this was contrary to the rules and regulations of the Society we are not told, but George Boone acknowledged his fault in meeting:—

> "5-26-1720 George Boone has openly acknowledged in the meeting his forwardness in giving his consent to John Webb to keep company with his daughter in order to marry, contrary to ye established order amongst us."

The next record of George Boone is some eleven years later, when Gwynedd Meeting records that Oley Friends had appointed George Boone, Sr., one of two men to visit families within the verge of their meeting. This was approved by the Gwynedd Meeting.

It is difficult to find any record of the land warrant of George Boone's own property, although in the Minutes of the Proprietors of Pennsylvania, we find the following entry which seems to refer to property purchased for the son George:—

> "Agreed with George Boone of Gwynedd, Sr., for his son George, for 400 acres of land at Oley, for 14 pounds per 100, and 1 shilling sterling quit rent, ye warrant dated ye 20th October, 1718." (a)

Having chosen what is now, and no doubt was then, a most beautiful piece of fertile, rolling land, George Boone built a log house upon it in 1720. The site of the original house is marked by a boulder placed there by the Historical Society of Berks County, Pa. Thirteen years later, having prospered, he erected a larger house of stone near by, which is still standing. The boulder referred to above is marked with the following inscription:

On May 31st, 1917, the writer visited the George Boone home, about 14 miles from Reading, Pa. This is a substantial, quaintly attractive stone house, said to be the one built by George Boone 3rd in 1733. The house is occupied by a thrifty German family which has kept everything about the place in most immaculate and "spic and span" condition, so that the place shows none of the signs of decay and disintegration which might be expected in so old a house. On the contrary it looks quite equal to another hundred years or so of wear. The original stone house is intact, but additions have been built. The angle of the original roof remains, but on one side, where the roof had at first sloped down to a very low eave over the first floor, a second floor extension has been raised, without disturbing or removing the original rafters, so that the house has the appearance of having a second floor addition built on top of the roof. The side nearest the road has a long low porch the entire width of the house, which is probably an addition. At the left of this is the real front of the house (facing the sun) with a quaint gabled portico before the door. There are few windows and many of these are narrow ones scarcely a foot wide, so built, it is said, as a protection against the intrusions of red-skinned visitors. The entire house, outbuildings, and all the fences are beautifully plastered and whitewashed. This is the house which George Boone 3rd built for his children, remaining himself in the first log house, which is no longer standing. The stone house is probably about forty feet square. A stone set in or near one corner of the building bears the date 1733. There are two other buildings on the property. One is a stone two-story building over the spring, which bubbles up in a cellar room and passes out through an opening in the wall through a walled-in canal or trough about ten feet wide and forty feet long, finally meandering away in a stream through the meadow. At the end of this little canal on its banks, once stood the tanners' vats used by George Boone and his family, who were tanners by trade. Directly back of the house at some distance stands another two-story stone building, now used for a corn crib and storage house. This bears a date stone over the door marked "I. B." Back of and at either side of the homestead extend most beautiful meadows and rolling, well-cultivated farm lands.

Having built the new house, George Boone refused for some reason to live in it himself, but turned it over to his children and continued to

FAMILY OF CATHERINE ROSANNA BOONE (COULTER).

(Data furnished by Mr. J. C. Coulter, 1516 Richland Ave., Columbia, S. C.)

CATHERINE^1 ROSANNA BOONE, born in Pennsylvania within or near the period 1730-40, died in Lincoln County, North Carolina about 1813; married Martin Coulter. She was probably a daughter of Joseph Boone (No. 6), (son of George Boone III) and wife Catherine. The following evidence of this connection exists:—

An old piece of time-worn paper written by Catherine's son, Martin Coulter Jr., and bearing the date June 6, 1846, is preserved by descendants. It reads:—

> "My father was Martin Coulter. He came to this country from Germany in 1750. My mother was Catherine Rosanna Boone, cousin of Daniel Boone—Squire's Daniel. Brothers John and Philip, sister Catherine."
> (Signed) Martin Coulter.

Because of Catherine Rosanna Boone's early date of birth (her first child born in 1759) she was probably a grandchild of George Boone III and thus a first cousin of Daniel Boone, rather than a member of a later generation. Record has been found of the children of all of Daniel Boone's uncles except those of the uncle Joseph (born 1704), and not one of this long list of cousins bore the name Catherine. Therefore, if Catherine Rosanna Boone were a first cousin of Daniel Boone, her father could have been no other than Joseph. In addition to this evidence we have the significant fact of the Christian names used in this branch of the family. Catherine is not a name commonly used among the Boones of that period, but the wife of Joseph Boone, son of George Boone III, bore that name. It can then be reasonably supposed that Catherine Rosanna Boone was named for a mother Catherine. Martin and Catherine Rosanna (Boone) Coulter had a daughter also named Catherine, who named her first son Joseph Boone Lowrance, presumably for his great-grandfather. All of these facts indicate descent from Joseph and Catherine Boone, and while no record of Joseph Boone's children has been found, there seems little doubt that one of them was this Catherine Rosanna (Boone) Coulter.

Martin^1 Coulter (originally Kolter) was born in Germany and emigrated to America, landing at Philadelphia September 26, 1749, on the Ship Dragon, George Spencer, Master. (Rupp's Collection of Names of German, Swiss and Other Immigrants in Pennsylvania, pages 211-212). The date of his marriage to Catherine Rosanna Boone is not known, but may be approximated by the date of the birth of their eldest child, Feb. 11, 1759. The first known record of his name in North Carolina is found in a Land Grant from King George III to Martin Coulter dated April ——, 1765.

In the Colonial Records of North Carolina, Vol. 22, page 722, his name is found on a "committee of Defense" (15 names), which met June 12th, 1779, "to consult on some plan to defend our frontier from the enemy" (meaning the Indians). On page 425 of the Index appears—"Coulter Family, Pioneers," Vol. 8, pages 753 and 756. These references are under the general heading—"Early German Reformed Settlements in North Carolina." Martin Coulter was a member of the German Reformed Church, and he and his sons were active in its establishment in the then frontier territory. When the state was invaded by Cornwallis in 1780, he went to the front, serving three months in Captain James Byers' Company under Col. Francis Locke and Col. Caleb Phifer. (North Carolina State Records.) His name is also found in the Federal Census of 1790 for Lincoln County, North Carolina. He died in 1808. Children:—

- 1^2 Martin Coulter, Jr., born 1759; died 1847; married Elizabeth Aydelotte. He served three months in the Revolution, 1778, under Capt. William Davidson, Col. Charles McDowel; three months, 1780, under Capt. James Byers, Col. Francis Locke and Col. Caleb Phifer; granted a pension in 1833. Record, Bureau of Pensions, Washington, D. C. Children:—

ISAAC BOONE, of Berks County, Pa., had a daughter Mary who married Michael Kern (d. 11 Feb., 1850, buried at Amityville, Exeter Co., Pa.). Their children were: 1. Samuel Boone Kern, b. 1797, m. Elizabeth Boone, 2. William Boone Kern; 3. Jacob Boone Kern, settled in Ohio or Indiana; 4. Jeremiah Boone Kern, m. —— Small; 5. Josiah Boone Kern, b. 26 March, 1804, m. Susannah Srark. The will of Isaac Boone, their grandfather, was dated 1794, and is recorded in Berks Co., Pa. It shows that he had a wife Sarah and a brother Hugh Boone whose son was named Owen.

HUGH BOONE, brother of Isaac, left will dated 1805, recorded also in Berks Co., Pa. It provides for wife Frances; sons Jonathan, Isaac, William, Mordecai and Owen; and daughters Hannah Evans and Elizabeth Jones. There was a Hugh Boone appointed guardian for the minor children of Joseph Boone, dec., of Exeter Twp., Berks Co., Pa., in 1783. (Orphans' Court Records, Berks Co.)

OVID BOONE, married Catherine—and had daughters: Leah Boone, b. 1775, who married James Parker (b. 1774) of Harrison Co., Ind; and Mecca Boone, b. 1798-9; d. 1815-20 in Greentown, Howard Co., Ind., married Benjamin Woods; and sons Randall and Ovid Jr. There are indications that Ovid Boone was a brother of Jacob Boone of Maysville, Ky., and possibly a son of Joseph Boone of Berks Co., Pa., who died before 1779. (See page 481). Ovid lived near Lexington, Ky., until about 1815-20, when he moved to Wayne Co., Ind.

Descendants of Ovid Boone are Mrs. J. M. Sewell, 4231 15th Ave., N. E., Seattle, Wash.; and Miss Kimberly, Librarian of Public Library of Marshalltown, Iowa.

WILLARD BOONE, born Feb., 1788; died Dec., 1870; married 7 Oct., 1809, Deborah Davis (b. 1790, d. Aug., 1864), daughter of George Davis. They settled in Granville, Washington Co., N. Y. and had children: Harriet, b. 1810, d. 1901, m. 1829 Charles Tingue; Samuel; Delis (or Delia) and Rhoda who both died young; Arelda, m. Horace Harris; and Lorenzo Dow. Willard Boone had brothers Moses and Aaron, and a sister Patty.

A descendant of Willard Boone is Mr. C. E. Tingue, Sunset Lodge, Cambridge, N. Y.

PRUDENCE PETERS, said to have been a cousin of Daniel Boone, had two sisters, Patience (called Patty) and Temperance (called Tempy) and a brother, possibly called Sam. Prudence was born in St. Petersburg, Va., about 1758, and moved to Kentucky with her parents. She

RECORDS OF THE SOCIETY OF FRIENDS IN PENNSYLVANIA

The Boones were first associated with the Abington Meeting near Philadelphia, but later moved to Oley in Philadelphia County (now Exeter Township, Berks County), where they became members of the Gwynedd Meeting. As the community became more thickly settled and the congregation grew, it became necessary to divide Gwynedd Meeting, and on August 25, 1737 (Old Style), a new group was formed under the name of Oley Monthly Meeting, which name was later—May 27, 1742 (Old Style)—changed to Exeter.

This explains why early records of the Boone family are found in both Gwynedd and Exeter Meeting Records, although their place of residence remained the same. By far the greater number of Boone records are found in Exeter Meeting Records, and extend well into the nineteenth century. The following sketch of Exeter Friends' Meeting House was published by the Historical Society of Berks County, Pennsylvania, in 1913:—

> "One of the first Quaker meeting-houses in Pennsylvania, outside of Philadelphia, was erected in 1726, in that part of Oley Township which is now Exeter Township. It was a log building. In 1737 a larger meeting-house was erected, also built of logs. The second meeting-house was demolished about one hundred years ago, when the present stone building was erected. The first meeting-house stood near the corner of the field across the road west of the present meeting-house.
> "On December 24th, 1736, George Boone and wife Deborah deeded to the Friends one acre of ground for a meeting-house and burying place. The first meeting-house, which stood across the way, was on a corner of this same one-acre piece, the road now separating the plots being cut through in later years. The burial-ground is south of the meeting-house.
> "The line separating Exeter from the older township of Amity runs through the Friends' burying-ground. Exeter Township was formed in 1741; the survey of the lines on the draft presented with the petition for the new township was made by George Boone, Esq.
> "The membership of the once flourishing Exeter Meeting has for many years been diminishing in numbers, there being at this time but three members, all of them of the Lee family.
> "By bequest a fund has been provided which suffices to keep the property in order. No meetings have been held in this house for about ten years."

The original old records of the Friends have been carefully preserved, and are now deposited in the archives of the Society of Friends. Those in which we are most interested are now in the Department of Records of the Friends' Library, 142 N. 16th Street, Philadelphia. On account of their extreme age and historic value, these old records are no longer accessible to the public. Several years ago, however, careful abstracts of these records were made, and are now to be found in the library of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, 1300 Locust Street, Philadelphia. From these abstracts the following Boone records were copied in 1917.

EXETER MEETING HOUSE, SOCIETY OF FRIENDS
Berks County, Pennsylvania

"It is much to be regretted that the Minutes of Abington Monthly Meeting as now preserved, are but an abstract of what the originals must have been, of which some idea may be had by comparing this volume with those which follow it. While there is no evidence of any loss of records by accident, yet when George Boone transcribed the minutes in 1718, it was thought unnecessary to preserve many details which would now be of great interest. The transcriber ventured, moreover, to preface the work with some historical remarks which could scarcely have been found in the minutes, and of which the strict accuracy may be questioned."

RADNOR MONTHLY MEETING

Addendum.

"Edward Roberts, in a visit to the land of his nativity (Merionithshire in the Principality of Wales) took some pains to get the account of the Births of several persons born there and afterwards removed with their parents into Pennsylvania and most of all were settled within the verge of this Monthly Meeting. After my father David George was appointed by the Monthly Meeting to record the Births of the children thereto belonging in the year 1750, he was furnished by Hugh Roberts, son of Edward Roberts, with the account so obtained as aforesaid. The Monthly Meeting in 1758 appointed me to Record Births in the place of my Father who declined. On mature consideration of the contents of the matter I hope no inconvenience can arise by entering the time of the births of those so brought here. The Record may be lost as it is in the ancient British Language, (I) shall just give the names of the child and Father with the Time of Birth, reserving the liberty of inserting the Mother's name where I am sure, and while the Record is in my custody, shall endeavor to preserve that paper. Jesse George."

FAMILY OF GEORGE BOONE AND JOANE (HEALLE) BOONE

OF EXETER, DEVONSHIRE, ENGLAND

The following records are of particular interest on an early Boone family of Exeter, Devonshire, England. The marriage record was sent by Joan Scott. The IGI, International Genealogical Index, Genealogical Society of Utah, Salt Lake City, was checked by the editor and the following entries were found.

The parish name with name of child, christening date and name of parents.

St. Andrew, Ipplepen, Devonshire (register begins 1558):
George Boone married Joane Healle, 21 June 1635.

St. Edmunds, Exeter, Devonshire (register begins 1571):
George Boone married Joane Healle, 21 June 1635.
Elizabeth Boone, 24 Sept. 1635 George/Joan.
John Boone, 13 Aug. 1637 Geo/Johan.
George Boonne, 17 Nov. 1639 George Boonne/Johan.
John Boone, 16 Jan. 1641 Geo/Jone.

(This may be another family.)
Elizabeth Boone, 21 July 1644 Geo.
Honner Boone, 4 April 1647 Geo.
Jone Boone, 30 May 1649 Geo.
Agnes Boone, 17 Aug. 1651 George.
Christopher Boone, 12 Oct. 1652.
Benjamin Boone, 28 July 1655.
Priscilla Boone, 14 Feb. 1657 Geo.

Topsham, Devonshire (register begins 1600):
John Boone, 25 July 1641 Geo/Joane.
Stephen Boone, 10 Nov. 1644 Geo.

Who was George Boone, wife Joane Healle and their family? The register of Ipplepen shows the marriage of George and Joane and the same date appears in the Exeter register. Then four children were born to George and Joan. The next group has only George Boone recorded as parent which might be another family, or perhaps George and Joane may have returned to Exeter.

After the record of the second John Boone, 16 January 1641, son of George and Joane; another entry appears at Topsham a few months later, John Boone, 25 July 1641, as son of George and Joane! Did they move to Topsham and the infant John was again christened at the age of a few months?

The third child was George Boonne christened 17 Nov. 1639, son of George Boonne and Johan (Joane). Could this be George Boone who married Sarah Uppey and were the parents of George Boone, born 1666 at Stoke-Canon, the grandfather of Daniel Boone?

It is stated that George Boone II died at the age of 60. If a death record could be found 1698-1700 for George, it might indicate this is the connection.

Boone records were printed from Stoke-Canon register which begins 1654 (published January 1978 bulletin) and those from the Bradninch register which started in 1559 (published April 1974 bulletin).

Sent to me by a Boone descendant. V.13

OUR BOONE/MORGAN GROUP

We believe we are related to relatives of Daniel Boone through RACHEL BOONE (11 Jan 1777 NC - 10 Mar 1869 Monroe Co. IN) who married our ancestor JESSE WILSON (Oct 1776 NC - 25 May 1860 Monroe Co. IN), though the connection has not been proven. The probable immigrant ancestor of our Boone line was SQUIRE BOONE, who met fellow Quaker, SARAH MORGAN, in what was then a wilderness area of Pennsylvania, and married her in 1720.

THE BOONE [BOON] LINE

Due to Daniel Boone's fame, there are many sources of information on him and his relatives. I found the following sources particularly helpful: (a) Daniel Boone by John Mack Faragher (a professor of history at Yale University) published in 1993 by Henry Holt and Company, (b) The Long Hunter A New Life of Daniel Boone, written by Lawrence Elliott (a journalist) and published in 1976 by Readers Digest Press, (c) A manuscript called Descendants of Israel Boone published by Alice H. Boone of Springfield MO in 1969 (copy found at Sutro Library in San Francisco), (d) a book called Thomas Coffey and His Descendants compiled by Laurence H. Coffey of Lenoir NC and published in 1931 (copy found in Sutro Library in San Francisco), (e) issues of the Boone Pioneer Echoes published by the Boone Family Association of Missouri in 1970 and 1971 and found at the Winnetka Library in IL, (f) the newsletter and workbook of the Boone Family Association, P. O. Box 887, Glen Carbon IL 62034-0887, and (g) information posted on the Internet by Terence L. Day, SE 635 Steptoe St., Pullman WA 99163, from records left by his step-grandmother, the late Celia Pearl Elledge Willis.

CAVEAT: The list that follows is largely a compilation of information collected by others. Linda, Sorry to be so late to get back to you but I have had the flu. I had the shot but still I got it. This is my first day out of bed. I had looked up what you wanted in the books but just couldn't make it to the computer until today.

I gave the book pages to Barbara of Little Miami three weeks ago, and she has not got back to me yet with information . Is she slow in getting around to getting back with you as she says she will do or am I just impatient?

Samuel Grimes	Mary F. Chane	no date given	Pension Application by Rev. Washington Brittingham)
Hays Clark of KY	Vina Chain	16 Aug 1898	Defender (8/16/1898) by Rev T. A. Moore

If the date follows the name of the newspaper then that is the date it was published. Some of the dates were before the name of the paper. There didn't seem to be any consistency. When there were two dates I assume that the first date was the date of the event and the second date was date of publication.

Next time I will send the Cemetery listings......

Linda,

I took the book to the publisher last Wednesday, but it will be awhile until she tells me how much it will cost. then I will send out slips to everyone I know that might be interested to get a count and let her know how many to publish.

Jacob Kilgore may have and probably lived in Greenfield, but he missed the 1870 census for some reason. I have a book copy.

Linda,

This is what I found:

Jacob Kilgore was not in Highland County in the 1860 census. There were some mulatto Kilgours there. One family of blacks.

I found the following marriages in Highland County Marriages: 1880 - 1900 by Genevieve Breakfield copyright 1993; the southern Ohio Genealogical Society, Hillsboro, Ohio.

Mary Killgore married George Ford, 29 August 1881, B. M. Carson, MG, page 6 above book, Original Volume 10, page 306

Lillie V. Kilgore married John W. Nukes, 2 January 1890, Rev. J. w. shade, page 39 above book, Original volume 11, page 425. There was a black or mulatto Lilly in census. I don't know race of the others.

Jacob Kilgore married Mary Ann Barefield (notice spelling), 15 October 1861, by McKnight Williamson, in Marriage Records of Highland County, Ohio: 1805 - 1880, compiled by David N. and Jane N. McBride, page 1534, copy 1981, Southern Ohio Gen. Soc.

Shirley

Here is Marianne's e-mail. She is 87 years old and still seems sharp as a tack.

Dear shirley, I sent you two e-mails, and I am not sure exactly what I said in the first one, but I believe it was to give you the chidren of my g.g.grandfather Jacob Bradford, who married Mary Hunt. The children were;John Hunt My gt. grandfather, who m. Sarah Ann Lawell, who died shortly after my grandmother[named for her] was born. She was taken as a baby and reared by Linnie Ailes Bradford who married John Bradford, a brother of Jacob. John diedand she re-married Oliver Kilgore. My Grandmother lived with them and their family until her marriage to my grandfather,Jacob Roser of Mason Co. KY,The next child was Nancy Jane,who m. Morris Edginton, and then,Eli, who m. his first cousin,Eda Bradfordand next is aWilliam, who noone knows anything about. My Aunt, who lived to be 102, thinks he might have gone to OK. during the land rush. Next was a Peter, who may have m.Mary Ann Shelton.and Catherine{Lucy} ,who m.James Chain. and last wasCharles Henry,who m. Amanda Edginton.Jacob Bradford was born in Worcester Co. Md. To Purnell and Eda{Edith} Robertson[Robinson].It could be that the William, who you are looking for could have been the elusive William we can't find. I have his birthdate as 1826-27in Adams Co. Oh.After the death of my grandmother,John Hunt re-married very soon, a woman by the name of Cyrena Carey. She was a mean step-mother and drove the children from the home as soon as they were old enough, so it has been very hard to trace them. I hope this helps. Didyou get my last e-mail, when I gave you the name of a lady looking for your William C?Let me know when you answer, Love Marianne Linda: This is the document I have been trying to send you from Richard and Anna Lykins Welch. I copied and pasted it but it messed the format up and I have tried to straighten it up a little so it is at least some semblance of what I received. How it will come through to your e-mail I don't know but if you have trouble making heads or tails of it then I will mail it to you. I know that e-mail sometimes fools around with margins and all kinds of things and it may make it hard to read. Let me know........

HISTORY

According to the 1850 Federal census of Huntington Township, Brown County, Ohio, William David Kilgore was born in Kentucky, his wife and all their children in Ohio. Living near the Kilgores in 1850 were Susan Louisa Kilgore's parents, John and Mary (Stewart) Gray, aged 66 and 64, respectively, both born in Pennsylvania.

William David and Susan (Gray) Kilgore moved across the Ohio River during the 1850s and are in the 1860 Federal census at Orangeburg Post Office, District 2, Mason County, Kentucky. They have not yet been found in the 1870 census. William and Susan were apparently separated before the 1880 census was taken. In 1880 he lived with his daughter Isabella Vance in Lewis County, Kentucky. He said he was then 75 years old and was born in Ohio. The spaces for his parents' birthplaces are blank. Susan lived in Precinct 8, Henderson, Lewis County, Kentucky, with her daughter, Susan Himes, and she is also listed in the Mower District of Lewis County with her daughter, Abigail Fry. She was probably alternating her time between these two daughters. Susan Louisa stated she was 70 years old and that she and her father were born in Kentucky, her mother in Ohio.

An "Old man Kilgore" was buried in East Fork Christian Church Cemetery, Lewis County, Kentucky, on February 11, 1889.

HISTORY

William Kilgore was probably from southwestern Pennsylvania in the area that is now Greene County, but disputed between Virginia and Pennsylvania and named first the District of West Augusta and later Yohogania County (1775-1780). The Gray family was in the 1789 tax list of Morgan Township, Washington (now Greene) County, Pennsylvania, and they, along with the Kilgores and possibly the Stewarts and two other families, migrated together down the Ohio River by flatboat, settling first in Nicholas County, Kentucky then eventually across the river in Ohio. Park Stewart related in an account that the flatboat was attacked by several canoes of Indians above Manchester... they managed to scare the Indians out of attacking by adding to their forces women in men's hats holding broomsticks, thus giving the illusion of more armed passengers. And one member of the party died during the trip and was buried along the bank before they reached Maysville.

The Kilgore log cabin on Fishing Gut Road still existed during the 1940s, but was in dilapidated condition then and is probably gone now (2006). The farm in Sprigg Township of Adams County to which they moved before 1830 is shown on the following map about one-half mile south of Evertonville and labeled 102 (acres) and O. Kilgore's heirs. Brookover Cemetery North is to the west on the same road and just across the county line in Huntington Township of Brown County.

Kilgore family Bible, earliest entry is Nancy (Hunter) Kilgore, born February 2nd 1772, from Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, now (2006) in the possession of Anna (Lykins) Welch. Nancy's exact relationship to William Kilgore [48] is unproven at this time, but she was probably the wife of William's brother, John.

If you've got that many, then I'm sure we're tied together in more than a few places. Almost all of my lines on my father's side go back to the late 1700's or early 1800's in the Adams County area of Ohio (which origionally contained parts of Brown County). The Kilgore line has been a bit tough for me, I'm somewhat stuck on a Sarah Jane Kilgore who married John Carson 25 Jan 1858. Sarah was born 18 Apr 1841 supposidly in Adams County, Ohio. From a death certificate, her father's name should be Jacob. I think she's part of this family found in the 1850 Census in Huntington Township, Brown County, Ohio:

1480-1505 Milley Kilgore - age 41F (Head of House)
Elizabeth - age 19F
William W. - age 17M
Jacob Kilgore - age 13M (new page so they repeated the name)
Sarah J. - age 10F
Denias (sp?) - age 7M
Linney - age 5F

Some list that entry as Sarah T. but if you look at how the author forms other J's and T's, I feel pretty comfortable saying it's a J. My guess is that Dad is dead here, and that Jacob is named after him. The William W. is interesting as well because I have copies of some letters she wrote and she talks about a W. W. Kilgore , but I was never certain if it was her uncle or her father's uncle or possibly some other connection. This family fits pretty good, but obviously I'd like to have a bit more to go on than this. Also, even if this family does fit, I stop dead here. Like you, I couldn't find much in Brown County on Kilgore when I was there digging around (or Adams County either for that matter). My grandmother still lives in the area - she's over in Winchester, so when I go up to see her I often take time out to visit the genealogy societies, graveyards, etc. while I'm up there as well.

> people. Right now I'm working on Wm. & Elizabeth (?) Kilgore and their
I don't have any specific information on them unfortunately. If I had more info (dates, etc.) I might be able to help you unearth some though. I do have some really vauge info on a Linna Kilgore (b. 1846) who married James Robert Scott (b. 1837) 6 Apr 1865 - I believe they were married in Brown County, though I could be wrong on that. Now the interesting part here is that they're living NEXT DOOR to Zachariah Black. Zachariah's son, William Zachariah Black married Josephine Carson. Josephine is the daughter of John Carson and Sarah Jane Kilgore (the ones I listed above). I think that raises the bar a bit on the chances that Linna Kilgore and Sarah Jane Kilgore are closely related in some fashion. Could be chance, but might not be either.

Cooper ties in with Boone as well if you have any in that line. It was kind of an intersting find in my family. I've got a Cooper and a Boone who are Sisters-in-law (both married Black's) and I have to wonder if they had any clue they were also cousins (4th I believe).

What other names do you work on in Adams and Brown Counties? Carson by chance? Higby/Higbee? I tie into the Lindsey, Redmon, Scott (ties to Cooper), Fithen, Hancock (need some help here), Hunter (need help here too), Pitzer, Crooks (and help here as well), Vandement, Gillman, and Vignon lines in Brown County as well (and I've got a lot more in Adams County I tie into). How about Hines or Palmer? Wallace or McDaniel maybe? (Everyone ties into Roush I think, and thankfully there's good info on them easily available). These are only the direct lines for me, there are more sidelines I follow from time to time as well. Do you happen to share a common interest in any of these?

Linda:

Did Gene say whether he has decided which John Carson or has he decided to stick with the one that he has worked on so many years? He should have that info on her brothers and sisters, too....that is if he took my word for it (which he may not have).

I don't have all of their info but here is what I have.

Ruth Kilgore, b circa 1829, m William C. Bradford 30 Mar 1846, d 13 Mar 1900
Elizabeth, b circa 1831, ??
William W. b circa 1833
Jacob, b. circa 1837, m. Mary Ann Barefield, 15 Oct 1861, died 1888.
Robert, b 1839, ??
Sarah Jane Kilgore, b 18 Apr 1841, m John Carson 25 Jan 1858, d 25 Jan 1926
see notes below
Derias, b 1843, In Civil War in Co. H, 70th OH, ?
Evalina (Linnie) b 1845, m James Robert Scott, d. ?

Further notes on Sarah Jane Kilgore: Gene sent me her death certificate and her son, Martin S. Carson had given the info for it. He told them that her father was Jacob Kilgore. As you can see, Jacob was her brother. The problem might be that Jacob died in 1888 and it had been so long ago before she died that he may have thought that Jake was her dad. This Martin had no idea who her mother was...it is listed as unknown. Robert died several years before Milley. Sarah Jane would only have been 4 or 5 years old when Robert died. Another thing, Sarah is listed as 10 years old on 1850 census and her death certificate says 1841 but ???

Gene sent me a couple of letters that Sarah wrote to her daughter, Josephine, back in the 1893. They are interesting. She is really aggravated at "W. W", her brother. Apparently he lived in Greenfield in Highland Co. close to her for a while. It sounds like he was a drunken bum. She didn't know if she could forgive him for "what he did to his wife" and according to Sarah Jane, he sold everything he had, bought him some fancy clothes, took the rest of the money and skipped town. There has to be quite a story there but I have no idea what it was.

Jake was in the Civil War also and then ended up in Highland Co. He and Mary Ann had 2 children, Adam C and Rachel.
I found some possibilities of where Robert might have been in IL in the 1880 census. He and the wife were both from OH and he is the correct age to be Ruth's brother but I don't know. Derias/Darius was in the Civil War and on his records he goes as Darius but under comments, it says his name was King Darius. He probably hated that name but it is the name of a persian king in the Bible.

Linnie had several children with James R. Scott, (about 9) and one of them, named Linnie, married a Sibrel. My grandmother saved the news clipping about the wedding.

I don't think the Kilgore family was a close knit group, maybe because they did not have a mother and father around to kind of cement the family bonds which parents and grandparents seem to help do. I have pictures of Ruth, Jacob and Sarah Jane.

When all this is down in black and white, it seems a pitifully small amount to know about your direct ancestors, doesn't it?

This is going to be a long e-mail, I think. But before I forget.....did Oliver Kilgore and Lavina Gray get a divorce or is that the same Lavina Gray Kilgore that inherited in 1867? I know he remarried to Linney Ails Bradford in 1837 or 1838 but I just thought Lavina must have died or something. (????) Linda:

That is one thing that I did know and that was Levina Stewart Gray's middle name. Our family has a picture of her and written on the back is Levina Stewart Kilgore. That "Stewart" was throwing me off and I was thinking that this woman's last name was Stewart and she married a Kilgore. That is what caused Sue and I to connect because she said she was connected to the Stewarts so I told her about the picture I had. That was when we started studying naming patterns more closely and figured out that this lady could just be carrying her mother's maiden name as a middle name. Then I told Sue about the fact that Oliver was married 2 times which she did not know. A lot of people just think that he and Linny Ailes were married and that was his only wife, according to what I read on the message boards but I knew that could not be true because Oliver was married in the 1830 Brown Co. Huntington Twp. census and had a boy and a girl under 5. At that time John Bradford was still alive and married to Linney Ailes so Oliver's wife couldn't have been Linney. John Bradford did not die until 1834. Then I got the far out theory that maybe this picture was Oliver's wife and so Sue went on line and found that Levina Gray and Oliver Kilgore were married in 1826. Then we met you and you verified what we were finding.

Would you like to have a picture of Levina Stewart Kilgore for your records? Do you know how to receive an attachment to your e-mail? I will try sending it to you and you let me know if you have problems and we will try to work through them. Okay? She actually looks like a very elegant lady. I will include her picture in this e-mail.

No, I could not find Oliver Kilgore, b 1749, in the Nicholas Co. KY census. I read on line on a message board that someone found his name and one of his sons name in some type of legal document in that area in the late 1700's. The document said "Oloven" and Obed Kilgore instead of Oliver but could have been misread or misspelled.

No, I don't think Oliver was in the Civil War. He had at least 2 sons who were in the war and lost one of them in the Battle of Atlanta, I think it was. I think Oliver died right on his farm there in Sprigg Twp. Adams Co in 1865. Sue's cousin, Dave Gray says Oliver's grave is on the old Kilgore farm about 1 mile from his farm. It has a small stone wall around it and Oliver's grave is the only one there, he thinks. I have read at the Adams Co. Gen Society about the Kilgore cemetery but did not know where it was. Then I found a map of Sprigg Twp dated 1850 and all the homesteads were laid out on it. Oliver's homestead was very near the Brown Co. line there close to Evertonville. I can remember my dad saying that we had ancestors who lived on Fishing Gut Road, which starts on Rt. 41 in Huntington Twp and ends up at the Old State Road in Sprigg Twp. I was raised on a farm in Sprigg Twp from the age of 8 until I left home to go to nursing school at age 18 so that is my old "stomping grounds".

Okay, I am ending this at last.....let me know if you receive the picture.

Grandfather had two brothers and three sisters: SUSIE, LAVINA, JANE, JOE, JAMES, and JOHN. Uncle Jim and Aunt Susie were never married. Aunt Susie died 1884 and was 95 years old. Aunt Lavina ~~married~~ WEST. She had three children //chn William, Joseph and Ellen. Joseph preached my grandfather's funeral. William moved to Port Huron, Michigan. One of his daughters and her brother are the founders of the "Lady Maccabees" there. Ellen married PICKERELL- her daughter lives near Georgetown, Ohio.

Aunt Jane married GRAY. There are quite a few of their descendants around Aberdeen.

(All of the above I consider to be GREAT grandparents and aunts and uncles, because she follows with this:)

My grandfather married Elizabeth RAINS. He was born in Virginia in the year 1786. He was in the War of 1812, and drew a pension until he died. He was mustered out in 1813 and married Elizabeth Rains in 1815. To them was born:

Jane	1816	*My father, Alexander	1825
Sallie Ann	1818	Nancy	1827
Billy	1819	Lavina	1830
John	1823	Joseph	1832

(1) Eliza Jane married Johnathen HOWLAND, and they had three boys and 6 girls, Joseph, Alexander, John, mary Elizabeth, abigail Abbie, Lavina, Nancy Jane, Hester and Laura Elizabeth "Sis", married James DRAKE near Winchester, Ohio. Abbie married T. Selman near Winchester, Ohio. Lavina married Cahill at Richwood, Ohio Laura lived at Richwood, I do not know who she married. Joseph was a Doctor, and married an Edgington.

(2) Sallie Ann married Shepherd HOWLAND, and had 6 boys and one girl; John Lewis, Joseph, Alex (bachelor) and Billy (bachelor), Albert, Bobbie, and Jennie who married FULTON and lived near Winchester, Ohio.

(3) Billie was born on Eagle Creek about 3 miles from Ripley, Ohio, married Drusilla Vane and had 3 girls and 8 boys: John (died) Joe in 1850, Lewis Cass, Virgil Alexander, Arle Kenton, James Hanson in 1861, Albert Homer in 1865, Edgar Maclain (bachelor), Laurs 1868, Melissa, Maggie. We were raised near each other until they left for Kansas in 1876.

(4) John married Sarah ELLIS and they had Joseph Lewis. She died and he married Hester KENDALL of Locust Grove, Ohio. They had 6 girls and 3 boys; Sarah, Allie, Martha, Elnora, Annie, Maud, Jesse, Waite and Alex.

(5)* Alexander married MATILDA GRIMES and they had six children: Elizabeth near Manchester, Oh on 4 Dec. 1861, Park Alexander 29 Jan 1864, Aseal Grimes 30 Mar 1866, Sallie 12 July, 1868, Louise 5 Feb 1875, Samuel Joseph 17 Jan 1878.

(6) Nancy married Lewis Ellis and had 5 children: Marth married John C. Sutton, Jennie never married, Laura married Nelson Sutton, John Franklin and Dias Alexander, both bachelors.

(7) Lavina married Turner EDGINGTON and lived at the old home place until grandfather died. Of this union were 4 children--one died in infancy. Ida, Charlie became a Doctor and died at West Union, Ohio. Effie married OUSLER.

(8) Joseph was born September 4, 1832 and was educated by McCAULEY. He married Jane RAINS, daughter of ALEXANDER RAINS of Aberdeen, Ohio. They had seven children: Irene, born April, 1862 married John Bloomhuff; Issac Newton (bachelor) John Alexander; Joseph and Cordelia died in infancy; Patrick in the state asylum; and Cora married Davis and lived east of Aberdeen."

Some of this is fact and some is fancy (or family legend--whatever you may call it), and since my grandmother was about 75 years old when she started writing, I'm sure there will be a number of corrections required. The trip down the Ohio River has been verified in Mary Ruth BROOKOVER's family history. It would seem that the Joseph STEWART that was married to Lavinah, and the Brown County Wills Bk 1, pg. 55 tie in pretty well with grandmother's records, except the names "Mary Gray and Abigail Davidson". Could these be children by a previous marriage? Would it be possible for you to make a copy of this will and send it along with the deeds I have marked on your research paper. Since Grandmother was not born until 1861, Abigail, who married Joseph Davidson 12 Dec 1813, could possibly have been 68 years when she was born. I keep forgetting that this is her great-aunt, and that her Great-grandfather had died 38 years before she was born.

Another thought occurs to me, although it might be out in left field. My grandmother neversays "great" grandfather, and with all the similiarity of names, I wonder if the "Lavinah"---cross that out, I see you describe the will, "names wf Levinah--etc." I thought that since "Lavina had lived at the "old home place until grandfather died," it might have been another Lavina or Lavinah.

I find no Revolutionary soldier named Joseph Stewart married to a "Lavinah" in my Revolutionary Patriot Index, but that doesn't necessarily mean he didn't serve, it just has never been proved. I have gone through the three volumes of Chalkley's "Chronicles of the Scotch-Irish Settlement in Virginia" and find dozens of Stewarts but no "Joseph". Since Grandmother designates Passaic "county", I wonder if it can't be the Passaic Valley in New Jersey. I haven't been able to get this book.

In the DAR "Official Roster III (71-5680) Soldiers of the American Revolution Who Lived in the State of Ohio", 1959 edition, I find on page 339 "STEWART, CAPT JOSEPH - Union Co. by Hannah Emerson Dustin Chapter, Marysville, O." which I failed to xerox the next page, and I haven't been to the Fayetteville Library to do it! Do you have that book on your shelves, and if so, would you please check it to see if by any chance that could be he. I doubt it, because that would be too easy!

From the "Roster of Ohio Soldiers in the War of 1812" published under Authority of Law by The Adjutant General of Ohio, 1916, pages 302, 303 and 304 and 307, I find on page 307 the Roll of Capt. Ezekial Kirtley's Company (County Unknown) and served from May 27, until November 27, 1813, Joseph Stewart is listed under privates.

Information from the records
of Mrs. Elizabeth Stewart Cole Stockwell

In the year 856, King Arthur II, who was the first Stewart king, conquered the Picts. One historian in writing about the Stewarts claimed that they were of the leading families of the Anglo Saxon race. Another wrote that the Stewart family had more influence over the Anglo Saxon race than any other family of people. This author stated that King Edward VII said in his last days that he was proud of the fact that he had Stewart blood in his veins.

Nearly all of England's kings were related to the Stewarts. A brother of Louis XIV of France married Mary Stewart of Scotland, which accounts for the French spelling of Stuart. There was no "W" in the French alphabet at that time.

The first Stewart came to America in 1636only 16 years after the settlement at Jamestown, Virginia. Our ancestors arrived in Virginia about the year 1730. At that time the Stewarts were scattered all over the British Isles. Our ancestors came from Glasgow, Scotland.

After the Revolutionary War, the Commonwealth of Virginia offered inducements to her veterans of the war to settle in the Ohio Valley by giving concessions on farm land. Bear in mind that what are now the States of Ohio and Kentucky were territory belonging to Virginia.

Our ancestors living in what was then Passiac Co., Virginia (I cannot find this on any colonial maps.)--in the year 1789 joined a company of five families, who with their livestock and household goods travelled to what is now called Braddock Pennsylvanis, only a few miles up the Monongahela river from Pittsburg.

They raised a crop and constructed what we know as a keelboat. It must have been a large boat to hold the five families, their horses, cows, pigs, farming tools, household goods, utensils, and, of course, children. They were to help to make the future farmers, merchants, doctors, lawyers, etc.

Early in the spring of 1790, the five families loaded their belongings in the crude boat and embarked on the Ohio and floated down the beautiful river to the mouth of Limestone Creek where Maysville, Kentucky, is now located.

It was an uneventful trip. My grandfather was then four years old. He was born May 1, 1786. The Indians were more troublesome on the Ohio side of the river; so they moved south of the river three miles where there were quite a number of settlers. The town of Washington is now located there. The following Spring our little company moved to the Ohio side of the river. (1791 ?) and settled around what was to beome the town of Aberdeen.

The STEWARTS located on the hill at the Head of a small creek called "Fishing Gut", one mile from the BROOKOVER home.

Subject: re: genealogy

Hi Linda,
First, thank you so very much for all of your help. Shirley is a wonderful person and has been kind enough to share your previous information with me.

I am a Gray, Stewart, Kilgore, Wilson, Beverly, Staton among others descendant. My Gray line start with Matthew and Nancy, John and Mary Stewart Gray, James Stewart Gray, Thomas Milton Gray, John Henry Gray, Paul Henry Gray, and my mother Opal Isabelle Gray.

The Stewart line is through Mary Jane Stewart married to John Gray.

The Kilgore line is Levina Gray (daughter of John and Mary) married to Oliver Kilgore, and their daughter Angeline, married Edward Wilson, and removed to Carroll County, MO.

The Wilson line, I have very little on, and what I do have I have just found. James Wilson is the father of Robert Edward Wilson married to Lydia Lucas, Mason County, KY., Aug. 18, 1810, James Wilson (his father) and Robert Lucas (her father) are listed as witness. I know zero about James or Robert, and I wonder if this is the Rev. Robert Wilson I have read about. From the 1850 census I know Robert Wilson was born in Pa., but have no idea where.

The Gray line, I have them on a 1786 tax list in Morgan Township, WashingtonCounty, Pa. before coming to Ky. and Ohio, but have no idea from there where to look, and have very little on the family outside of my direct chain. I don't know what they did for work in Ky. and Ohio and would like anything you have on them.

Levina Gray and Oliver are a new find. I have been looking for this for years. I knew my grandparents were cousins, but had no idea how until now. They connect this way:

John and Mary Gray
James Stewart Gray - Levina Gray	Levina Gray and Oliver Kilgore
Thomas Milton Gray	Angeline Kilgore - married Edward Wilson

John Henry Gray	Joseph Wilson
Paul Henry Gray (grandfather)	Iva Myrtle Wilson (grandmother)

Anything you have on Levina and Oliver I would like. I know nothing about either of them
The other Levina (Joseph's daughter) married a Locke, I have communicated with their descendant, Diana Swayne, but she has just recently passed away.

Thank you so much.

Hi Linda,
I would love to work together. My Wilson line is not very filled in. My grandmother - Iva Myrtle Wilson - (married Gray) left me a lot of notes, and they help. From her notes:

d. Jan. 13, 1910 Carroll County, Mo. buried Bethlehem ChristianCemetery Angeline Kilgore b. May 26, 1827 Brown County, Ohio
d. Jan. 14, 1920 Carroll County, Mo. buried Bethlehem Christian

Moved to Missouri 1860, he was a farmer
I found their marriage on usgenweb Sept. 13, 1849, Brown County, Ohio, Anderson Helm, JP
Edward served in the Union Army 1862 * census over

Lydia Ann Wilson (Morgan) July 4, 1850 Maysville, KY.

John Oliver Wilson Dec. 18, 1866.............June 29, 1884
Joseph Edward Wilson Dec. 18, 1866.............May 3, 1940 m. Sarah J.

Grandfather Wilson's mother was a Lucas, her mother a Rubart
Grandmother Wilson's mother a Gray and her mother a McVey (she skipped one Stewart)

I found Edward and Angeline on the 1850 census with Robert and Lydia Lucas Wilson in Washington, Mason County, Ky.

I found Robert and Lydia Lucas Wilson marriage on usgenweb Aug. 18, 1810 Mason County, Ky. witness on permission slip James Wilson (father) Robert Lucas (father)

Jim, I received the following letter today about the will of Isaac Gray. The information I found on the contents of this will didn't list all these children have you any info on it?
copy follows;
Dear Sheila,
I think maybe I can help you a little bit. This information was e-mailed to me by Fay Walker >e-mail address= Fay walker@aol.com
Below is a copy of Isaac's will, I could see no commas separating the the names of his children. I think there should be eleven. Fay has the micro-film.
October 19, 1813
Fleming County Will Book A pages 28 & 287
A last Will and Testament of Isaac Gray of Fleming County and Kentucky.
Item: 1st I do will and bequeath to my wife Caty Gray one third of my property

both real and personal.
Item: 2nd I bequeath to my sons Joseph Andrew Elisha Henry Tim John William and James W. Gray the remaider of my land and farming utensils together with a proportional part of the stock of horses and cattle, sheep & pigs & c. to be divided equally among them.
Item : 3rd I will and bequeath to my daughters Ruth Jane Sara and Margaret Gray all of my household and kitchen furniture (except my wife's third) and a proportional part of the stock above mentioned to be divided equally among them all other articles coming within the discretion of the above to divided equally amongst my wife sons and daughters.
I do appoint my wife Executrix and John Dinsmore my Executor.
Where unto I sign my hand at Detroit this 19th day of October 1813.

Isaac Gray

My research also concerns "your" Isaac Gray who I have listed married to a Catherine Hial on 12 Nov. 1791 in Mason County, KY
This maiden name of the wife seems really odd to me, can find very little additional information. I hope the above data will be of some help to you. I know I have some more information which I will try to send you when I find it! My husbands gr.grandmother was Eliza Jane Gray, daughter of Sarah and granddaughter of Isaac & Catherine Hial.

Sincerely, Jackie Decker

Sue, Tell Brenda to go to the new BC,O Courthouse and check deeds. They'll help her. Being sure to check the 2 AC,O pre BC,O deed bks. first, as they are before it became BC,O in 1819. Atlas of BC,O pub. 1876 shows (BC Gen. Soc. repub. this also and may still have it for sale) in P. Slaughter Survey # 396, 3 Samuel Gray residences, 2 near waters of Fishing Gut Run, a lot of Brookover here too. This is probably her best bet. J. Parker Survey # 4421 has Josep Gray, J. CHICAGO:
W. H. BEERS & CO.

Howland, who settled in Mason County, Ky., in an early day, and removing to this side of the river, became one of the oldest settlers of Brown County. He had a large family, of whom a number became residents of the county, and all are deceased. Ichabod remained in the northern part of the county during his life. He served in the war of 1812. To him were born eleven children—Bean, Jonathan, Ralston, James, Shepherd, Nancy, Smith, Armstrong, Ichabod and Ichabod, and one who died unnamed. Mr. Howland died about 1853 or 1854, aged upward of seventy years. His wife died two or three years previously. Our subject was married to Cinderella, daughter of Jesse Ellis, an old settler, in 1852, after which he settled in the township, where he has since resided. He is a member of Charter Oak Lodge, No. 137, I. O. O. F., of Aberdeen, Ohio, to which he has been connected a number of years. They were parents of twelve children, eight of who are living—Lafayette, Jesse L., Dora, Viva, William W., Dyas, Nina and Effie. The deceased are Amanda, James M., Mary, Alice and Nancy.

WILLIAM A. HUTCHISON, farmer, P. O. Aberdeen. William Hutchison, the grandfather of our subject, was born in the Blue Mountains, in Loudoun County, Va., about seventy-five miles from Richmond, in 1757, and died in Brown County January 7, 1841, in the eighty-fourth year of his age. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary war, participated in the decisive battle in which Cornwallis was defeated, and stood near that General when he surrendered his sword to Washington. When about twenty-six years of age, he married Rebecca Cooper, a lady of about his own age, who was raised in his neighborhood. In 1795, he embarked in a flat-boat at Pittsburgh, and, coming down the Ohio River, did not land for fear of the Indians and Tories along the river until he arrived at Maysville, then but a station of a few log cabins. After eight years' residence at a fort four miles from Maysville, and where Washington, Ky., now stands, he bought sixty acres of land in Huntington Township, Brown County, Ohio, on which he lived until his death, as above given. His wife died in this township January 15, 1853, in the eighty-seventh year of her age. They were the parents of eleven children, all of whom lived to reach their majority; they were all Baptists, and the men were Democrats. Their youngest son Samuel, father of our subject, was born in Brown County in 1810, and, on March 4, 1841, married Tamar Lock, who was born in Brown County in 1820, and died August 9, 1878; she united with the Christian Church when quite young, and lived as a consistent member of that church until her death. By her Mr. Hutchison had eleven children, four sons and seven daughters. The father lived on the farm, originally purchased by his father, for sixty-nine years, and three years ago moved to Adams County. His son, William A., the subject of this sketch, was born in this township in 1845, and remained on the farm with his parents until twenty-seven years of age, when he commenced life for himself. He was married, December 19, 1872, to Fanny, daughter of Benjamin Payne, and a native of this county, where she was born November 23, 1851; by her he had three children—Micajah M., Clara B. and Nellie L. After his marriage, he rented his father's farm until 1881, when he purchased 101 acres of land where he now resides. He and his wife are members of the Christian Church, to which they connected themselves eight years ago.

C. C. LAWWILL, teacher and School Examiner, Aberdeen, was born in Huntington Township in the year 1855, and is a son of William H. and Louisa (McGhehay) Lawwill, early settlers. The early life of our subject was passed on the farm, and in the district schools, he received the rudiments of his education. By hard work and close application to his books, he fitted himself to teach, and held a first-class certificate at about the age of twenty years. He began teaching at the age of seventeen years and since has been regularly engaged in the work. He was appointed one of the School Examiners of the county in October, 1881, which position he still fills with credit to himself. He is a student at law, and engaged to some extent in pleading cases. He was married, in 1880, to Miss Emma, the daughter of Simon Covert, of Brown County, Ohio. He is a member of the Charter Oak Lodge, No. 137, I. O. O. F., and Gretna Green Lodge, No. 99, K. of P., Aberdeen, also of the New-Light Church.

T. W. MADDOX, farmer, P. O. Hiett, was born in this township in the year 1834, and is a son of Thompson and Sarah (White) Maddox, old settlers in this coun-

Mr. Lafabre's father never knew a sick day from three years of age, till the time of his death, a period of seventy-seven years. In 1812, he assisted in building, at Pittsburgh, the first steamboat to run on the Ohio River. Mrs. Lafabre is in her eighty-fifth year, and still enjoys good health. Charles H. McKibben, who married Mr. Lafabre's daughter Elizabeth, was born in Lewis Township, December 5, 1853. He is a son of Henry McKibben (deceased), who was an early Clerk of the Courts of Brown County. He subsequently clerked a short time, and then engaged in mercantile pursuits, remaining at Maysville six years. In March, 1879, Mr. Lawwill came to Georgetown, moving his stock of goods from the former to the latter place ; he immediately commenced business in his new location, and in September, 1880, George Inskep was admitted as a partner in the business. Both members of the firm are young in years, but by strict attention to the wants of their customers, coupled with a large amount of industry and perseverance, have succeeded in building up the largest and most remunerative trade, in their line of goods, in the village.
